Couple Exchange Vows In Stillwater, Minn.

First Presbyterian church in Stillwater, Minn., was the scene Dec. 29 for the marriage of Janet Fay Brekke and Edgar Waite Averill, Jr. Vows were exchanged at 8 p.m. in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Alexander Brekke of Stillwater, Minn. Her husband is the son of the senior Averills of Westwood drive, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE appeared in a white gown of pure silk peau de soie and re-embroidered alencon lace featuring a sabrina neckline, long sleeves, empire bodice and bouffant skirt.

A crown of seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, white roses and white feathered carnations.

Carol Brekke, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a spruce green velvet ballerina-length gown with a sabrina neckline and dome skirt. Her headband was matching velvet with a small veil. She carried white poinsettias.

ANTHONY W. PEW stood as best man. Ushers were James Linsley, Jon Charleson, Jon Lehrman, Roger Moulton and John Brekke. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brekke selected a beige silk faille outfit with green accessories. The groom's mother wore a powder blue silk faille dress with matching accessories. Both had cybidium orchids.

The new Mrs. Averill changed to a green wool dress with brown accessories to start her travel to California.

Couple on Cruise

MSU STUDENTS Set Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Frost of Deerfield, Ill., announce the engagement of their daughter, Jacqueline Darlene, to Donald Walker Sawyer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sawyer of W. Maple road, Birmingham.

Both are seniors at Michigan State university. Jacqueline is majoring in art and is a member of Kappa Delta sorority. Her fiancé is a geology major and is affiliated with Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity. The wedding date is set for Aug. 15.

Hagermans Spend Holidays In Northern Michigan

The Marc Hagermans and children, Doug, Steven and Dodie, of Butternut Hill drive dashed up to a cabin at Grayling to enjoy the quiet and peace of the north country for four days after the busy holidays.

On the eve of their trip they hosted a New Year's eve party at their Butternut Hill drive home. Joining in the fun were the William Bowmans of Clawson, the Ted Dolonogowakis of Royal Oak, the Michael Bells and the Henry McDonnells of Pine Hill and the Fred Cornetts of Hickory Heights.

Another holiday party was hosted Dec. 27 by the Hagermans. Their guests were the Richard Bergersens of Birmingham, the Charles Collins and the Martin Walshs of Royal Oak.

The Harry Seigels of Butternut Hill drive have been enjoying their son, Charles "Sandy" Seigel, who has completed his two years of Marine service and has been home for the past two weeks. Sandy's last stint of service was spent at 29 Palms in California.

He plans to return to Michigan State to continue his education. One year was spent there before entering the Marines.

A son, Russell Grant, was born Dec. 27 to Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Nowlin of 2870 Theford, Bloomfield Twp.

A "re-acquainted-open-house" party was hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Jay Van Zoeren of Rock Hill on the Sunday before the new year. The guests were all of the new Hickory Heights subdivision and included the Bud Hassards, the James Herbats, the Dick Bertans, the Fred Lindaburys, the Charles Amanns, the Don McDraws, and the Fred Stanfanskys. The Fred Cornetts were also there from Hickory Heights drive.

Dr. and Mrs. Jay Van Zoeren have just settled in their new home on Rock Hill drive, moving from Derby road, Birmingham. They have four sons, Steven, 9; Tom T; Michael, 3; Douglas, 1. The older boys attend Eastover school. The doctor is with the Haven in Rochester. Among their sports interests are swimming and skiing.

The Z. Lewis Horvaths entertained at an "open house" at the Hickory Heights drive home during the holidays. The punch bowl and buffet were served from an attractively decorated table of pines and red candles. The 22 couples were immediate neighbors in the Hickory Heights subdivision.

The Roger Gaskill home on Far Hill drive was the scene of a holiday party for the Browne troop 400 of Harlan school, an afternoon during the holiday season. The 11 Brownies, all third graders, enjoyed the treat of ice cream, snowmen, punch and candy canes.

Assisting Mrs. Gaskill were Mrs. Norman Coreman, Mrs. Eugene Swan and Mrs. Thomas Noonan.

Four generations gathered at the Robert Hamly home on Meadowlark drive. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rodenberg and daughter, Barbara, of Lathrup Village, parents and sister of Mrs. Hamly.

Barbara's friend, James Munson of Detroit, and the great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fox of Huntington, W. Va., visited Mrs. Hamly's parents during the holidays.

The Denman Jacobsons of Rouge guests of the Cye Southmays.

Jan. 8, 1959 THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC 3-C

The Eugene Moorheads and children, Judy and Gerry, of Polard circle spent a week in Poland, Ohio, with friends and relatives. While there they stayed with Mr. and Mrs. John Bidner in Youngstown, parents of Mrs. Moorhead, and visited Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Moorhead.

The Cub Scouts of pack B34 held their annual bazaar at the Harlan school. The items sold at the bazaar were made by the den and displayed.

College President Honored by Alumni
