West Bloomfielders Resolve To Stay Home Next Year!

BLOOMFIELD WEST—"Next year I'm staying home" was probably the most adamant resolution made as 1958 literally slipped into '59.

Francis hostesses hurried to the attic to hunt through camping equipment for coats and blankets for the "stay-at-home" party, while mentally tabulating the contents of the refrigerator.

The milkman, arrived on a borrowed hand sled and with bottle caps fastened to his shoes for more traction.

One ingenious male walked three miles to his home, got out the tractor and toboggan and returned to the scene of the party to retrieve his wife.

Exchange student, Misako Miyamoto returned to her studies at Brandeis university after spending the holidays with the James B. Roberts family of Lakeshire road.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were in Chardon, Ohio, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper and Misako joined them there Dec. 24 for a real American family Christmas, returning with them to Walnut Lake Dec. 28.

The Roberts daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. James H. King of Baltimore arrived Dec. 28 in Chardon in time for a family reunion.

Joan Guarniere entertained 20 Birmingham high school friends at a Christmas tea Dec. 26 at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. Guarniere of W. Dearborn road.

Mrs. William Bunnell was hostess Dec. 18 at a dessert bridge. Guests included Mrs. Fred Boynton, Mrs. Wendell Moore, Mrs. Val Corradi, Mrs. Thomas Taylor, Mrs. Roy Martin and Mrs. William Carroll.

Others were Mrs. Victor Gauss, Mrs. T. B. Guarniere, Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Paul Berzover, Mrs. Jack Souder and Mrs. David Youngdahl.

The Thomas H. Holdens returned recently to their home on Valley Spring drive after vacationing for a month in Miami and Jamaica.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor entertained 12 neighbors for a holiday brunch Dec. 27 at their home on West Hartmoor road. Guests stayed on for an afternoon of cards.

Thirty guests celebrated New Year's eve in the balloon and streamer decorated recreation room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Sweet on Euclid road.

Highlighting the holiday season for seven-year-old Mary Beth Burkhardt was the slumber party she hosted for three of her girl friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Burkhardt of Meadow Lake road.

Allowed to stay up much past their regular bedtime and then served breakfast in bed were Janet Miesel, Kristin Gerick, Carolyn Mullaney and the little hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Danahy of Valley Spring drive, spent Christmas as guests of his mother, Mrs. Nellie Danahy and sister-in-law.

Scouts Hold International Holiday Party

BLOOMFIELD WEST—Senior Girl Scout troop 360 met Dec. 22 at the home of Mrs. Ray Troutstead on Inkster road, Franklin, for an international Christmas party.

FOOD with a foreign flavor was the key note of the party. The buffet was inviting with Swiss appetizers brought by Pat Morse; French rechauffe, a meat and rice dish, prepared by Joan Troutstead; Papa Pelena, a Peruvian favorite, made by Margaret Roberts.

Italian pizza, Joan Peenka's contribution; Nancy Jeppson's Swedish coffee cake; Paula's fruit punch concocted by Mrs. Julian Gfenstein and spiced fruit relishes made by Margaret Roberts.

MRS. J. B. Roberts baked luscious, a Polish rice pudding; Austrian friendship tarts and nut horns were fashioned by Joan Loewe and Nureberg Christmas cookies were made by Kay Grabor.

THE GIRLS, dressed in native costumes, told of Christmas customs of the countries they represented.

Mrs. Julian Gfenstein taught a Polishian sun dance and gifts made by the girls were exchanged. Former troop members, Sally Hanson and Mary Roberts, home from college, were guests.

Walnut Lake School Panel Set Jan. 12

WALNUT LAKE—"The Town Hall Panel Meeting on our Schools" will highlight the Jan. 12 PTA meeting to be held at the Walnut Lake school at 8 p.m.

A five-member panel will discuss a PTA questionnaire which had previously been presented to parents.

SERVING on the panel will be Dr. Richard Featherstone, administrative assistant of Birmingham schools; Dr. Mark Carss and Norman Wolfe, assistant superintendents of Birmingham schools; George McIntyre, president of the Walnut Lake PTA and Edward Jacques, citizens committee representative of the Walnut Lake PTA.

Parents are urged to be present at this informative discussion and the question and answer period which will follow.

Baldwins Celebrate Silver Wedding Anniversary

BLOOMFIELD WEST—This Christmas season was especially significant for Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baldwin of Putnam road. They celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Dec. 26.

The Baldwins were married in Chicago in 1923.

Cocktails preceded dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Grigoletti, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Knisley and Mr. and Mrs. William Behrens, all of Detroit.

COMING IN from Grosse Pointe were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Berkey and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hornung. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Konop, of Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schafer of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dietrich of South Lyons and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. William Croy and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bell.

Girl Scouts Give Toys to Children At Baptist Home

BLOOMFIELD WEST—The day before Christmas, Mrs. James Steele and Wendy N. Hebdian representing troop 318 presented the Baptist Children's home at 13 mile and Greenfield with 18 wooden animals made by troop members.

Miss Chapin, who accepted the gift on behalf of the home, said the animals would be used as surprise gifts for stockings.

THE TROOP visited the Children's Museum in Detroit Dec. 27 to see the planetarium's presentation of "Star of Bethlehem." They also saw the exhibits, including the doll display of Mrs. Walter Carey of Middlebelt road.

4-H Bake Sale

BLOOMFIELD WEST—Bloomfield 4-H club members will hold a bake sale from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. Jan. 10 at the Walnut Lake drug store.

John Gordons Host Friends at Party

BLOOMFIELD FARMS—A New Year's cocktail party was held Saturday at the home of the John Gordons on Maple road, Bloomfield Farms. During the evening, color slides were shown of a West Indies vacation the Gordons took last summer which included Jamaica, Haiti, Puerto Rico, Antigua, Barbados, Martinique and Trinidad.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Byers and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McCann of Bloomfield Farms, Dr. and Mrs. Clara Lewis of Franklin Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ramsay McPherson of Woodrow Woods, Dr. and Mrs. Woodrow Lamb and Mrs. Edna Meier of Detroit.

Change Addresses

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP—The Darrell C. Roberts, daughter Lynn, and son Jack, have moved from their former home on Acorn drive to their new home at 4681 McEwen drive, Bloomfield Hills.

Roberts is administrative vice-president of McManus, John and Adams.

Sue Jesson Entertains College Pals

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—Sue Jesson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley P. Jesson of Sodon Lake road entertained at a luncheon Saturday for her friends in the Bloomfield area before they all returned to school.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanley P. Jesson held open house Friday for former friends and neighbors of Foxcroft.

This Saturday they will host their supper club. Guests will be Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Anderson of Detroit, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Seth, Dr. and Mrs. Herschel Reynolds, Dr. and Mrs. Renard Jones and Mrs. R. H. Stickey, all of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Jesson's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ward and children, Pixie Anne, Karen and Michael of Ann Arbor will be the Jesson's Sunday dinner guests.
