

'... Sweet Sunday With So Much To Do'

Summer is kinda like a Sunday . . . all stretched out and lazy. Seems like it'll never end. But that's OK. There's an awful lot to do. You c'n start out sorta slow—just scrape up the money, find a buddy 'n' buy a soda. It's cool—that's the way Ken Davies, 4385 Sly court, Wing Lake, and Pete Allen, 6212 Worrington, Gilbert Lake, feel. Or (below) . . .

. . . are more fun than anything. You c'n go anywhere on 'em. You can pretend they're somethin' else, or you can tie 'em together like Charlie Adams, 691 Pilgrim, Bob Landry, 671 Pilgrim, and Charlie's brother Mike did—just for fun. You can (below) . . .

. . . somewhere else—like camp f'r instance. You kiss your folks goodby, and they step out of the picture for a few weeks. That's what Joan Thompson, 355 Fairfax, did. Right behind her, her sister Sylvia waits her turn. Marcia Warren, 270 Pleasant, was getting on the bus for Camp Ta-Wa-Ma-Na, too. Look-in' (below) . . .

. . . just find a fire plug (they got 'em all over the place). They're great f'r jumping over—as long as there's nothin' exciting like a fire happening. If the plug's just sittin' there, might as well use it. Nobody'll care. Mike Wheeler, 240 Ravine, tries it. Allen Peterson, 220 Ravine, and Kevin McLoughlin, 612 Park, wait 'n' watch to see if he'll make it. Bikes (above, right) . . .

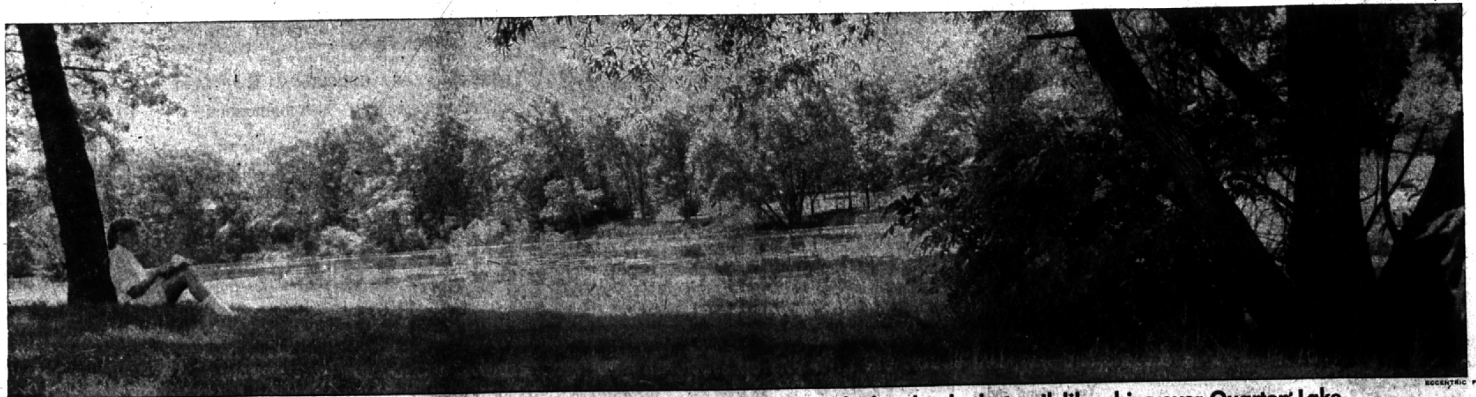

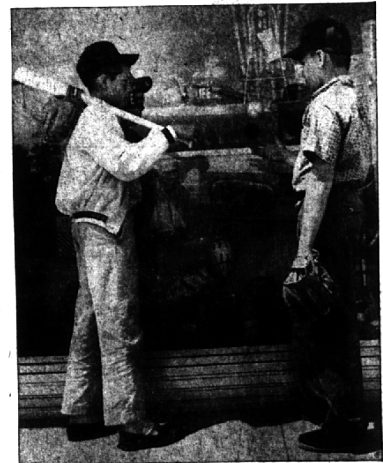

. . . pretend you're in college—the star fullback. Gotta start practice early. (From left) Brian Partlan, 860 Rivenoak, Sandy McKenzie, 775 Rivenoak, and John Lucas, 863 Rivenoak, go out for Chuck Partlan's pass. You c'n always go (above, right) . . .

The Birmingham Eccentric
 Thursday, July 16, 1959
 BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
SECTION B

It requires personal practice for human beings to achieve distinction in any line of effort. Indeed, it takes practice for the little baby to learn, first to creep, then tottering walk, then run. It requires the practice of study to emerge from childhood to maturity . . . and it equally requires learning how to practice the art of being a good citizen in a democracy.

. . . at the things you'd like to have, and thinkin' what you would do with 'em is lots of fun. Jack String, 172 Overhill, and Dick McLaughlin, 18763 San Diego, Lathrup Village, do some windowshopping and wishful-thinking. Or, if the mood really hits you, the way it hit Brenda Drumm, 268 S. Adams, you can grab a book, collect . . .

. . . a few thoughts; sit back and watch the long, long day pass quietly with the clouds that sail like ships over Quarton Lake.

eclectic photos