

The entire observable world about us proclaims that a Providence does exist! That a Divine Plan operates throughout the whole universe. That man, the highest form of life upon earth, ought to be—and therefore can be—protected by the Almighty. To achieve such protection mankind must, as a verse in Proverbs 1 declares: "whose backbents unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil."

Luau Time at the Bekolays

"ALOHA, KAHEES and Wahinees, we're going Hamaian in high gear so brush up on your hula... Luau time is here," was written on the many invitations that were sent to friends of the John Bekolays of Evergreen road, Beverly Hills. Chatting outdoors at the Friday evening luau are (from left) the John Madonnas of Bedford lane, Southfield township, Mrs. John Bekolay, hostess, and daughter, Mrs. Robert Simo of Beverly Hills.

With the Hawaiian music in the background the hula was very tempting to (from left) the Donald Dittrichs of Chelsea drive, and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Saba of E. Green-which drive, Birmingham. Guests were seen strolling on the grounds in bermuda shorts, sarongs and bright colored shirts with matching leis.

Mrs. John Bekolay entertaining her Luau guests with an original Hawaiian dance.

Suburban Scene

By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Back Home Again

Dr. and Mrs. John R. Flich and children, John, James and Gary, of Bellvine trail, returned Sunday from Glacier National Park in Northwestern Montana. Upon return they stopped off in North Dakota and Minnesota.

Introduced at Tea

Mrs. Frank F. S. Cartwright of N. Glenhurst, Birmingham, entertained at a tea Saturday afternoon to introduce her future daughter-in-law, Ann Alexander, daughter of the Reed Alexanders of Bloomfield Hills, to 50 guests. The table was centered with white flowers. The bride-elect will become the bride of Peter Anthony Cartwright on August 22. This tea will start off a number of showers.

Former Wing Lakers

A ranch in Montana, Yellowstone Park and the Grand Canyon, and sojourns in Seattle and San Francisco—these are a part of the itinerary of the T. Ladyard Blakemans, who stopped for a brief visit in Bloomfield Hills over the weekend.

The Blakemans, former Wing Lake residents now residing in Princeton, N. J., were guests of the Richard Sloans on Wabecor road.

They were accompanied by their son, Van, who enjoyed a reunion with old friends at a supper party given Sunday night by the Sloan's son, Martin. Martin is accompanying them on their trip west. First stop is Chicago where they will be joined by their daughter, Hannah, who has been visiting in Mexico City.

Sailing News

The boom of the starting gun Tuesday morning found the women sailors of Orchard Lake Country club opening the second sailing series of the season with Mrs. Berrien C. Ketchum of Sufield road, Birmingham, in charge. Following their sail, the ladies had lunch at the club, where prizes were awarded to the winners of the first series by Mrs. Benjamin Brewster of Brookdale drive, Birmingham. Mrs. Edward S. Reid, Jr., of Clifton road, Birmingham, received first prize and Mrs. George H. Crane of Rochester second.

Ballet Under the Stars

A water ballet under the stars and an al fresco buffet dinner is the delightful means the Woman's Association of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra has chosen to raise funds for the symphony. The affair is scheduled Aug. 4 at the Robert VanderPyl's home, 384 Lake Park. In case of rain, it will be held the following evening. Reservations may be made through Mrs. Ronald Pepin, 17765 Manderson, Detroit.

ECCENTRIC PHOTO

Meeting at Hills CC

Entering the Bloomfield Hills Country club to meet a group of women interested in the Swedish Booth, which will be featured at the International Travelers Market in the fall, are (from left) Mrs. Darrell C. Roberts and Mrs. Ernest A. Jones of Cranbrook road, Bloomfield Hills. Among the guests Mrs. Jones entertained were Mrs. Elmer Benzin, Mrs. Vaughan W. Greene, Mrs. M. F. Coulson, Jr., Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom and Mrs. Glenn A. Carlson.

Waterford Girl To Marry Derby Teacher

EDNA PAULINE CARLSON

Edna Pauline Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Carlson of White Cloud, Mich., is engaged to Gary A. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loudon G. Wilson of Lake Orion.

Her fiance, a teacher at Derby junior high school, graduated from Michigan State university and was affiliated with Tri Beta. He lives in Pontiac.

Edna graduated from the University of Michigan and did graduate work at Eastern Michigan college. She is a resident of Waterford.

An August 15 wedding is planned.

Attendants Wear Rose Silk Organza

Sue Carolyn Miles and Robert Collins Leonard exchanged vows Saturday afternoon at the First Methodist church. The Rev. Allan Wittrop officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Miles of North Gilegarry, Birmingham, chose a gown of silk organza with chauntilly lace accents on the bodice and carriage length skirt.

HER FINGERTIP veil was caught in a lace cap studded with delicate seed pearls. She carried phalaenopsis orchids, and strophantids woven with streamers of ivy.

The groom is the son of the Thomas J. Leonard of West Chesterfield, Ferndale.

Mrs. Richard C. Miles, the bride's sister-in-law from Alexander City, Ala., was matron of honor, and Irene Schiele of Grosse Pointe was bridesmaid.

Both attendants wore rose silk organza shirt-waist dresses with shawl collars and satin trimmed three-quarter sleeves, and chose dior bow headpieces.

THEY CARRIED colonial bouquets of carnations centered with four pink rosebuds.

On the equire side were Charles Gan Gamester of Ann Arbor as best man; James Scott of Detroit; Michael Miles of Birmingham and Thomas Leonard of Los Angeles were ushers.

Mrs. Miles chose a white lace over green satin sheath with a matching satin hat. She wore rhubarb lilacs.

Mrs. Leonard wore a rose lace street length dress and a rose petal hat. She chose lilacs as her floral accent.

FOLLOWING A buffet reception at Devon Gables, the new Mrs. Leonard donned a black and white checked cotton suit with red accessories.

MRS. ROBERT C. LEONARD

series for the honeymoon trip to northern Michigan. The newlyweds will make their home in Des Moines, Iowa, where the groom will continue studies at the College of osteopathic medicine and surgery.

Vows Exchanged In Baptist Church

First Baptist church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Sally Smith and Howard E. Erdman. Dr. Homer J. Armstrong performed the 4 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Smith of North Woodward, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard O. Erdman of Weatherly, Pa.

THE BRIDE APPEARED in a full length gown of white nylon chiffon featuring a square neckline, cap sleeves and a taffeta cummerbund ending in a butterfly detail in back.

A taffeta bow secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. A bouquet of white stephanotis and butterfly roses completed the bridal outfit.

Mrs. Leroy W. Braisted of Clawson, sister of the bride served as matron of honor. She wore a blush pink nylon chiffon ballerina length gown and carried a nosegay of red garnetto roses.

Bridesmaid, Mrs. Martha Smith Duff of Royal Oak, sister of the bride, appeared in a cyclamen pink nylon chiffon ballerina length dress and carried pink Camellia roses.

FATHER OF THE GROOM, Howard Erdman, stood as best man. Escorting the guests were Leroy W. Braisted of Clawson, Thomas Watts of Huntington, Ind., and Marvin Lovett of Clawson.

Ring bearers were Jonathan Scott Duff and Matthew Havens Duff, nephews of the bride, of Royal Oak. Timothy Francis Duff of Royal Oak was junior usher.

MRS. HOWARD E. ERDMAN

THE COUPLE left for a wedding trip to Northern Michigan and then driving to Richland, Washington, where Dr. Erdman will be affiliated with General Electric-Hanford Atomic Energy Research Project.

'Ducking for the Oyster'

The 1959 Girl Scout Roundup which was last week in Colorado Springs was the largest international encampment ever sponsored by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. The 10,000 campers attending included 8,500 teen-age girls and 1,500 adults representing all sections of the U.S., its territories and 27 other countries. "Duck for the oyster, Duck for the clam" chant these Girl Scouts during a square dance demonstration at the Roundup. They are (from left) Lesley Greenwood of Birmingham, Julie Lawrence of Toronto, Canada, Joan Troutstead of Birmingham, Theo Carroll of Detroit, Cheryl Commons of Lathrup Village, Marcia Moorehead of Farmington, Pat Kirby of Ontario and Barb Monroe of Birmingham.