Gilbert Lake Family Tours Europe—Finally

GILBERT LAKE—When Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Angewine and their daughter Judy, of Carriage road left early in June for Europe it looked for a time like they would never arrive. They boarded an Italian Liner on June 9, unpacked everything and were just nicely settled when they were told the ship was involved in a strike and there would be no food and no service. After two days at dock they transferred to a plane headed for Brussels. Four hours out over the Atlantic the pilot announced trouble so they headed back to New York limping through a storm to Idlewild where they waited two hours for another plane. This time they made it. Looking on the brighter side of things they gained a week by flying and spent the extra time at a charming inn located on the Mediterranean near a small fishing village in Italy. Just back from a Florida vacation are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willson of Snowshoe circle. With their son of Snowshoe circle, Mr. and Mrs. D. Yager, who recently moved to Richmond, Va., are visiting friends in this area for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Yager are house guests of the John Piegans of Snowshoe. This weekend Yager will be playing golf with Jack Geiss of Birmingham in the Birmingham Invitational Golf Tournament. The Yager's daughters, Debbie and Susie are also visiting in the area. Debbie is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Don Harness of Snowshoe circle and Linda's houseguests. Wendy Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barrett of Snowshoe circle. Next week the girls will make an exchange, with Debbie at the Barrett home and Susie at the Harness'.
