

Soroptimist Club Names Officers

M. Virginia Sink, governor of Midwestern region, Soroptimist Federation of the Americas Inc., was the installing officer at the installation banquet for the Soroptimist club of Birmingham, last week at Kingsley Inn.

Governor Virginia is a project engineer for Chrysler Corp., with a BS degree in chemical engineering and the only woman in the U. S. to hold a master's degree from Chrysler Institute. In 1952 she was honored as one of Detroit's Women of Achievement, her portrait is in the Historical museum.

Officers installed were Maxine Lucombe, president; Marian Schmidt, vice president; Dorothy Dunbar, second vice president; LaVerne Markowitz, recording secretary; Mary Dewey, corresponding secretary; Virginia Walton, treasurer; and Helen Allen, board member.

Irene Hanley inducted three new members, Marian Danziger, Jean Carr and Roberta Rogbitz.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, birth parties are all new—the society editor about them.

Attendants Gowned In White Organdy

Janet Ann Burwell became the bride of Dr. LaMar A. MacNutt Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. Dr. W. Glen Harris performed the 4 o'clock ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Burwell of Carl Elder road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Omar E. MacNutt of Pontiac.

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown of white Italian silk trimmed with alençon lace on the bodice. An Italian silk cap secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses and lily.

Mrs. Richard Wood served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Leah Mae MacNutt, sister of the groom, and Mrs. William Adams. They wore white organdy over light blue cotton dresses and carried baskets of dark blue carnations.

Ronald Leighton stood as best man. Ushers were Waldemar Rosser, Robert Ward, Dr. Richard MacKenzie and Dr. William Adams.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE chose a rose beige sheath dress of silk organza over taffeta featuring a lace bodice. She pinned green cymbidium orchids on her purse. Mrs. MacNutt selected a blue sheath dress of silk organza over taffeta with chiffon panels in the back. She carried white amazon lilies and stephanotis.

Newlywed MacCallums Travel to Maryland

Community Congregational church was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Joan Weaver and Robert Hamilton MacCallum. The Rev. Philip Gentile performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Weaver. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Reid MacCallum of Baltimore, Md.

THE BRIDE APPEARED in a white silk taffeta gown featuring princess lines falling in wide pleats, lace bodice, short sleeves and round neckline. A headpiece of lace and pearls secured her shoulder length veil of silk illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Sonia Black served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Mrs. John W. Day, Jr., Mrs. E. J. Thomas, Mrs. James Abbott III, and Barbara Gardner was flower girl.

Attendants wore waltz length Nile green taffeta dresses featuring short sleeves, square necklines and grosgrain ribbon sashes. Matching green hats of taffeta bows with face veils and colonial bouquets of deep purple carnations completed their outfits.

MRS. JOHN J. ROOSEN Vows Repeated At Holy Name

Holy Name church was the scene Saturday morning for the marriage of Joan Constance Belanger and John James Roosen.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Irving J. Belanger of Cherokee lane, Bloomfield township, and Thomas W. Roosen of Detroit, and the late Mrs. Roosen.

THE BRIDE appeared in a gown fashioned of peau de soie with an empire lace bodice and she carried a bouquet of amazon lilies with ivy.

Maid of honor was Mary Ruth Belanger, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert H. Johnson, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Irving J. Belanger, Jr., sister-in-law.

They were dressed in harpy gowns of pastel prints and carried bouquets of pink carnations and sweetheart roses.

Thomas W. Roosen, Jr., stood as his brother's best man. Ushers were John G. Belanger, Michael Berry, William H. Belanger and Robert DeCamille.
