

Eventful Day At The Country Clubs

Meadowbrook CC

Most titles are judged on beauty but on June 24 Meadowbrook Country Club had five lovely contestants in the running for "Miss Sandtrap", which was judged strictly on skill. Mary Ann Mehaffey came eight feet from the cup and walked away with the title. Chatting with the queen are (from left) Mrs. W. E. Bailey of Locherbie road, and Mrs. W. W. Gilbert of Weston drive, Beverly Hills; Miss Sandtrap and her Misses will greet guests at the Motor City Golf tournament, which will be from Aug. 13 thru 16.

Birmingham CC

June 24 was an eventful day at the Birmingham Country Club. The day started off with a ladies' luncheon and fashion show with hair styles by Edmunds Beauty Salon and cocktail dresses by Cardinal dress shop. Members modeling their new coiffures are (from left) Mrs. Harry E. Day of Riverside drive, Southfield township; Mrs. David K. Wirth of Charles lane, Franklin; and Mrs. Charles Bauervic of Glengarry road, Bloomfield township. Chairman of the show was Mrs. William F. Ploch and assisting were Mrs. Edgar W. Pugh and Mrs. O. T. Thompson. Later that evening on the agenda was a "Kick-Off" dinner for swimmers and golfers. Among the honored guests were Marty McNeely of radio fame, Tobin Rote, quarterback of the Detroit Lions and Bill Prew, who was co-holder with Johnny Weismuller of the world's record 100 yard free style and intercollegiate swimming champion. And as the evening came to an end, comments were heard, "See you July 4 for another big day!"

Concert Tonight At Fair Grounds

The Detroit Symphony orchestra enters its fourth week of free concerts in the Music Shell at the Michigan State Fair Grounds with programs scheduled today and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. Valter Poole will conduct.

Today's concert will be orchestral and features works by Tchaikovsky including the entire symphony No. 5 in G minor. Saturday night's "American Music" program will include Grofe's "Grand Canyon" suite and Dvorak's symphony No. 5 in E minor "From the New World."
