

Vacation's Shot—He's Gonna Study

James L. Hall, a Birmingham high school student has been chosen to attend the Summer Science Training program at Montana State college, July 19 to Aug. 1.

Southfield township, will be a senior in BHS in September. He was chosen to attend on the basis of his record and on the recommendation of Lucille Palar and Ralph Battenhouse, science instructors at BHS.

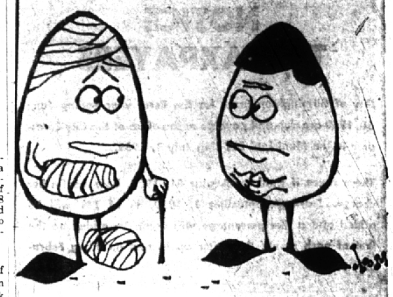

FORWARD ABOUT YOUTH

Road, Ocean, Air Beckon; B'ham Streets De-Peoped

The artists of Birmingham are becoming more deserted as more and more families leave on every-thing from week-end jaunts to month-long vacations.

Tenting Tonight...

FOR HER graduation present Pat Nolan, Immaculata grad, received a trip to California and the West with her parents and brother, Jim.

"I found out later she was a girl scout."

JULY JOGS and JIGGLES

JOG NO. 1.—SCALE—A CORRECTION! We suggested that a single spray to control LECANUM (soft brown) scale, in the trees too tall for your equipment to reach should be applied by a professional sprayer between June 15th and June 30th.

JOG NO. 2.—SCALE—A FURTHER ADMONITION.

Since writing the long and expensive ad of last week we have received bushels of twigs & branches infested with LECANUM SCALE.

JOG NO. 3.—WEED CONTROL BY MULCHING.

If you want to monkey along every week and lose a ball game or an hour at the 19th hole by weeding your garden and borders DON'T put BUCKWHEAT HULLS OR PEAT MOSS on those areas to keep the weeds down.

JIGGLE NO. 1.—FERTILIZING FLOWERS.

If you think that by putting on a little 4-12-4 or 5-10-5 or Driconure this spring you have fed your garden for this year you are SADLY MISTAKEN.

JOG NO. 4.—FRUIT TREE SPRAYING.

Don't let vacation get in the way of this important program. If you do, a lot of your efforts have been wasted. Bugs are vacation-minded to the extent that they read The Eccentric to learn when you are going away.

JIGGLE NO. 2.—HOSE SALE (Water hose, that is).

Quite a few pieces of HALF INCH hose, designed to handle HALF INCH water for HALF-BAKED LAWN.

JOG NO. 5.—LAWN FERTILIZING.

A large number of people have complained about their lawns getting brown areas in them. All of this is NOT due to fungus disease. A good deal of it is due to LACK OF NITROGEN.

JIGGLE NO. 3.—BARBECUE (Can't abide the other spelling).

JULY FOURTH—The time for the master to show his worth on the outdoor range. Not on a horse, but on a beef range—the kind that turns a hamburger into a N.Y. strip steak or spare ribs into a rolled rib roast.

JOG NO. 6.—THE FOURTH OF JULY.

In spite of the lawn, the bugs, the terrace, and the barbecue—REMEMBER THE IMPORTANCE of this day in our history.

Bright Lights Old Stuff To This Pre-Teen Star

Phil Torrey is an "old trouper" at the age of 11 years. But he's not resting on past triumphs—a debut at three and a half, a regular spot on a television show at four.

Teen Center's 'Way Out'; Teens: 'We Like it, Man'

The Birmingham Teen Center, operating since April 10, begins its fourth month next week and the Junior Board chairman, Sue MacLean, reports a real success in the operation.

Open every Friday night, the Teen Center has hosted over 2,000 teenagers in its two½ weeks of membership.

THE FIRST Friday after a week of ticket selling, when all memberships were sold to 10th, 11th, and 12th graders in the Birmingham school district, 85% attendance was represented by 485 teenagers.

On this opening night, prizes were given to those holding lucky numbers. The merchants of Birmingham were very generous in donating the prizes to the Teen Center.

On May 8, a Bohemian party was held, attended by over 400 teenagers, and again prizes were given to two boys and two girls dressed best in Bohemian fashion.

May 15, a high school quartet from Royal Oak played dance music and another fine attendance record proved its merit. Arrangements are being made to have the group again soon.

DURING the three special nights and the nine Fridays not mentioned, the gameroom was open and many guys and gals recreated there.

A representative meeting of the Birmingham's Top Ten

Table with 2 columns: Rank, Artist/Album. Includes M.T.A., Lipstick on Your Collar, The Battle of New Orleans, I Only Have Eyes for You, Back in the U.S.A., A Boy Without a Girl, Forty Miles of Bad Road, This I Swear, I'll Be Satisfied.

Table with 2 columns: Rank, Artist/Album. Includes At Large, More Peter Gunn, At The Hungry 10, Peter Gunn, The Kingston Trio.

On the top ten scene, "Hushabye" by the Mptons has taken over first place locally from "The Battle of New Orleans" by Grand Old Opry star, Johnny Horton, the big advance made by the Trio's latest, "Dream Lover" has dropped, "I'll Be Satisfied" could be Jackie Wilson's biggest. It looks as if Rick Nelson will have his usual hit with "Sweetener Than You" isn't it about time for Elvis to come out with a new one?

The novice or ardent jazz fan will be interested in the American Jazz Festival to be held August 14, 15, 16 at the fair grounds, Andre Previn, Dave Brubeck, Paul Desmond, the London Monks, The Dukes of Dixieland, Jack Teagarden, and Gene Krupa are just a few of the big names. It is probably the best jazz concert ever to be held in Michigan.

Detroit, and works with a USO unit. He is "straw hat circuit" has been before. He appeared in "The King and I" and "Fanny" in Detroit and Flint theaters. He worked with the Wayne State university theater in its 1958 production of "Peter Pan." He is studying dramatics at Cranbrook. Even his collar has been affected by Phil's career. His name: "Star Troupers."
