Nothing Too 'Ruff,' Even Mongrels Get 'Arf' a Chance Here

What boy—or girl for that matter—cares how good his dog's conformation or stance is? Obedience isn't matter too much, either; just as long as the dog runs after his master when he's playing.

So, the Ken-L-Ration division of Quaker Oats company, and Wrigley's super market, Telegraph and W. Maple roads, Mayfair, are staging a dog show in which the animals are judged on less rigid standards.

LARGEST and smallest dogs, the best-groomed, the one with the best tricks and the best dressed-up will be the prize winners.

Nothing snobbish about the show, any dog can get in—no pedigree necessary.

First, second and third place best-of-show winners—or rather, their masters—will be awarded a flash camera, an eight-inch geographic globe, and a dog-statuettes kit.

The show is scheduled at 8:30 a.m., Monday, July 6, at the Wrigley's super market, Telegraph and W. Maple roads.

Entry blanks are available at the store.

'Splish, Splash,' 'Y' Plans a Class In Private Pools

The YMCA is now accepting registrations from boys and girls 6 to 10 who are interested in beginners' swimming instruction in a private swimming pool near their homes.

Forty-five minute classes will be held one morning each week during July and August, beginning the week of July 6.

The following schedule has been arranged and registration will be accepted until the maximum of 10 per class is enrolled:

Monday for Valleywoods, Bloomfield Village school areas. Pool on Lincoln west of Lahser.

Tuesday for Beverly, Pierce and Southfield school areas. Pool on Birchwood, between Pierce and Southfield.

Wednesday for Quanton school. Pool on Puritan; for Midvale school, pool on Golfview.

Thursday for Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield township, if interest demands.

Owen Manchester, YMCA executive secretary, will be instructing the classes. Response from pool owners has been so great that a list of the pools offered could not be used, Manchester said.

No charge will be made for these lessons, Manchester said, but children must be "Y" members to be eligible.

B'ham Youths Join World of Caucus, Campaign & Vote

Birmingham supplied three rising stars in young political skies at the recent Wolverine Boys' state on the campus of Michigan State university.

George D. McHugh, 1281 14 Mile road, Birmingham, was elected city councilman of the fabricated city of Grant. Charles H. Hartung, 1116 12th, was a member of the State board of agriculture in a mythical "60th" state.

James Wall, another Birmingham high school senior, took the oath of office as justice of the peace for the city of Grant.

The eight-day exercise in the problems of government, is sponsored by the American Legion, Department of Michigan. It is designed to develop leadership qualities, teach the advantages of good citizenship, and cultivate a spirit of good sportsmanship.

Boys state was dissolved June 25.
