

Bake a Cherry Pie? Yes, They Did!

MEADOWLAKE—Bright lights will soon top the brick entrance to Meadow Lake Farms. They will be purchased with profits from the June 24 potpourri luncheon at the Franklin Community church, sponsored by the women's auxiliary of the Meadow Lake Farm's civic association. Mrs. William Long (left), Mrs. Merrill Hayden and Mrs. John Sydnam helped to serve some 176 enthusiastic women. An attractive cook book sold at the luncheon contained the recipes for each of the dishes served. Mrs. Richard Burkhardt was the chairman of the committee, assisted by Mrs. Robert Davison, Mrs. Jack Greenfields, Mrs. William Long, Mrs. Edward Hufnagle, Mrs. Jack Holmes, Mrs. Vic Beer and Mrs. Vincent Johnson.

Injured Boy Worried About Baseball Career

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP SOUTH — Ten year old Tommy Lindamood has big worries. What will happen to his baseball career now that he is in Beaumont Hospital following a rather gruesome experience with a power lawn mower. He also missed a mighty exciting birthday party. Young Tommy is an ardent baseball player and what with skin grafts and crutches how can a guy play ball? Mr. T. Lindamood of Kibbrenn Tommy was giving his dad a

New Program Begins 'Around the Towns'

A new revised program of news coverage begins this week for the "Around the Towns" section, which covers the area outside the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills city limits.

To provide space for more photographs and features, The Birmingham Eccentric has reorganized its correspondent corps, assigning correspondent-reporters to specific municipalities, with three assigned to the huge township of Bloomfield.

Six correspondents, each a resident of the area she covers, now stand ready to report the news of each community. Your correspondent would like to hear from you. She can do a better job of reporting your area's activities, if you will phone stories to her about yourself, your family, or the meetings of your subdivision association and other groups within your community.

Here are the correspondents and the areas they cover:

- IF YOU LIVE IN:"
- Beverly Hills (covering the Village of Beverly Hills and the South Berkshires) Aileen Stocker MI 4-1038 (after 6 p.m.)
 - Bloomfield township, south of Maple (covering all of Bloomfield township, from Maple road south) Marion Patrick MA 6-3029
 - Bloomfield township, north of Maple (covering all of Bloomfield township, from Maple road north, east to Woodward) Karol Darling MA 6-6348
 - Franklin (covering all of the villages of Franklin, Bingham Farms and Wood Creek Farms) Nita Hard MA 6-3224
 - Lathrup Village (covering all of the City of Lathrup Village, and Cranbrook Village) Dorothy Zatell EL 6-3029
 - North Adams (covering all of Bloomfield township east of Woodward and Troy) Elizabeth Yates MI 6-1682
