
Another Horse Show Entry

must be filled out by each of the young hopefuls and their parents in order to get on one of the teams. Then the boy must earn a spot on that team during the workouts.

All in all, it gives one a comfortable feeling to know that football has not been forgotten and that there is something else to discuss besides the Tigers or the latest efforts on the golf course.

And then the Lions will be holding their daily get-togethers at Cranbrook again this year beginning sometime in August.

So things are bound to get better!

SENIOR MEN'S CLUB

Mrs. Ruth Shain is speaking to the Senior Men's club at their regular weekly meeting at the Community House last Friday, told of our predicament in regard to West Berlin. No written agreement was ever made to provide access to this city which lies 110 miles inside of Russian dominated territory. Therefore we have no means of entering or leaving West Berlin.

Monday, June 22 was the day for the club's monthly visit to the Oakland county hospital. On this occasion 12 members made the trip and provided entertainment for more than 50 of the patients. Most of these people are confined to wheel chairs. Fenton Watkins and Merritt Olsen took their Dulcimers and violins and their "Old Time Music" was augmented by B. A. Duncan, flutist of the Elkhart symphony orchestra. Everyone took part in the singing and refreshments were served at the conclusion of this impromptu program. Herbert Flemington is the Senior Men's chairman of this activity and he did an excellent job in creating a happy atmosphere.

George W. Reish, oldest member of the Senior Men's club received congratulations for this his 90th birthday, and Charles R. Baker received congratulations as the Bakers are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. Appropriate cards bearing signatures of the members were tendered and the Ladies of the Community House, headed by Mrs. Fred Gould provided a birthday cake and sang "Happy Birthday."

Next weekly meeting will be held on July 2nd because of this being a Fourth of July weekend. The entertainment feature will be a talk about the new developments of the Burroughs Corp., by Fredrick Hoar of their public relations staff.
