Nassau Honeymoon For Thomas Clines

Holy Name church was the scene Saturday morning for the marriage of Joanne Therese Greiner and Thomas William Clines. Vows were spoken at 11 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Greiner of Westwood drive, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Leo D. Clines of Saginaw and the late Mr. Clines.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride appeared in a silk organza over taffeta with a beaded chantilly lace panel applied on the front of the gown and a sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and chapel train.

The flowers were a double wreath of white roses and ivy with a spray of Carol Ameling pale pink roses attached to the top. Rosemary M. Greiner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara E. Klemm of Birmingham and Mary Margaret Cline of Saginaw.

THEY WORE dresses of white silk organza with fitted bodices and bell skirts with bands of ice blue lace and matching satin ribbons interwoven through the lace around the bodice and skirt.

Their blue carnation noseays repeated the blue in the dresses. They wore white organza leaf headbands with circular veils of white tulle with iridescent sequins scattered on it.

Charles W. Cline of Ridgewood, N. J., stood as best man. Seating the guests were Richard Cline of New York City, Clement J. Richter and Gerald J. Talbot of Saginaw.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE greeted guests at Forest Lake Country club in a champagne col-
