

Ruffles of Tulle Accents Bridal Gown

The bride, Janice Elaine Schatzley, appeared in a chantly lace gown for her June 27 marriage to James C. Bingham, Jr. at St. Michael church. The Rev. Leonard Kennedy performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schatzley of Pontiac. Her husband is the son of Mrs. James C. Bingham of Birt street, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Bingham.

THE BRIDE'S gown featured a Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves with ruffles of tulle accenting the floor-length skirt. A lace crown secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book with streamers of carnations.

Mrs. James Hyten was matron of honor with Virginia Smith as bridesmaid. Judith Schatzley, the bride's sister, and Judith Bingham, the bridegroom's sister, were junior bridesmaids.

ATTENDANTS wore gowns of pink, green, yellow and blue, respectively, featuring scoop necklines with nylon embroidery at the waist and full bouffant skirts. They carried white carnations surrounded with tulle and ribbon to match their dresses.

Shelly Gray, flower girl, wore a floor-length dress of white organza over pink satin. John R. Schatzley, bride's brother, stood as best man. Seating the guests were Carl Foltz, William Chisnas and Michael Dobach, ringbearer was Thomas Zelinski.

A BREAKFAST followed the ceremony at the bride's home and an evening reception at Hotel Roosevelt.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Schatzley chose a dress of gray lace over pink satin with white accessories and the groom's mother selected a beige princess style dress with matching accessories. Both mothers had white carnations.

Attendants Wear Blue Silk Organza

Marilyn Dee Hay became the bride of Robert Byron Webster Saturday afternoon at First Methodist church in Royal Oak. The Rev. Paul Durham performed the 3:30 o'clock ceremony.

MRS. ROBERT B. WEBSTER

Following the ceremony, guests were greeted on the terrace at Red Run Golf club for a buffet dinner.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton I. Hay of Royal Oak. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Webster of Frank street, Birmingham.

The bride wore a gown of eyelet embroidery with tulle train and an empire waistline. An embroidered bow secured her elbow length silk illusion veil. She carried a small bouquet of stephanotis.

Mrs. Russell Kidder of East Longmeadow, Mass., served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Barbara Hitt and Mrs. Aaron Hall. They wore periwinkle blue silk organza gowns featuring empire waistlines and ballerina skirts. Their flowers consisted of white Fuji mums.

ROLLAND S. MCGINNIS served as best man and ushers were John A. Ziegler, John H. Fildew, Edward C. Hanpeter and John A. Beach.

Mother of the bride chose a diaphanous blue lace and tulle sheath with matching accessories and carried an orchid. Mrs. Webster selected a pale pink embroidered raw silk sheath with matching accessories and an orchid.

The newlyweds are motoring to Northern Michigan.
