Off the Record
As was predicted in this column four or five weeks ago, the Fabulous Fabian has hit the top again, this time with his first album, "Tiger." And for the first time since Ricky Nelson's second "Ricky Sings Again," he has an album that jumped from nowhere to number one on the hit charts. The Kingston Trio, still with the number two album of the day, "At Large," as their album (the top seller of the first six months of '59). "From the Hungry I" fall the hit charts for the first time in 8 weeks. But their smash singles "Tom Dooley," "Tajana" and "M.T.A." still maintain their number one selling status this year.

ABOUT YOUTH

Elvis Presley wouldn't stay down and has rebounded with another two-sided smash, My Wish Came True, and A Big Hank O' Love. David Seville and the Chipmunks reach hitville again with the newest novelty hit "Ragtime Cowboy Joe."

The group of traveling high schoolers is somewhat smaller this week. It seems to be the mid-season lull between the early July and the August vacationers.

SUE KRREIS is spending her summer at a cottage near Caserille while her classmates, Connie Parsons, touring California for one month.

California is presently well populated by Birminghamites. In addition to Connie, Joe Fremont, U. of D. high graduate is spending five weeks in the west.

Joe Schlesinger recently returned from a three week tour of the western states, and Mike Forster is soon leaving for a vacation in the west.

KIM SANKRY is touring the west with the Camp Pendleton group, and Leigh Stowell and Otto Laule leave for the same area this weekend.

Bonnie Richard, BHS grad, is spending a week at Grayling with her family. Gail Mathews left on the 28th, also for one week at Grayling.

Francis Von Maur, recently returned from a three week vacation in Florida, is spending most of her summer at the family cottage in northern Michigan.

ANN PEARSON writes that she is enjoying Europe immensely and has many exciting stories to tell her friends when she returns.

Jim Codner, just home from a stay at Don Welch's cottage, left on the 18th for one week with his family on Portage Lake.

Jan Anderson spent four days visiting Bob Hutchings before the two of them left Tuesday for Camp Weinstock on Higgins Lake where they will spend one month as counselors in training. Jan, who recently moved to Cleveland, was honored with a birthday bridge luncheon while she was here.

JOAN SCAFURI spent four days swimming and sunning at Ludington last week.

Tom Brown and Bill Montgomery took three days off from their counseling jobs at Camp Hagg-Went-Ha to attend the summer orientation program at Michigan earlier this week. Marilyn Brandon and Pat Lucas were at orientation at the same time.

Martha Kempf, who has been coming and going all summer, left last weekend with her parents for another trip in their trailer.
