Phil Torrey, a seventh-grader at Barnum Junior high school, recently added "Showboat" at the Musical Tent at Clio, Mich., to his already long string of stage appearances. He played in the show which starred Andy Devine—"Jingles" on the "Wild Bill Hickock" television show. The 11-year-old has been active in the entertainment world since he was three and one-half.

News and Views Off the Record

In an age where good musicians are few, it's gratifying to see the name of Andre Previn on the hit charts. Jazz fans know him well and many will remember him on the Academy Awards receiving awards for his work in "Gigi." Despite the lush strings of David Rose, "Like Young" is one of the best pop songs to hit the charts in some time. Andre is at his best when he's with Shelly Manne and Red Mitchell. Ask to hear Andre and his Pals (they also are called Shelly Manne and his Pals) play My Fair Lady.

Ahmad Jamal is due out with a new album titled "646 Ahmad Jamal At The Penthouse." This album will be released in July.

While on the subject of new releases, Elvis deserves small consideration for his latest sides. The plug "A Big Hunk of Love" will sell, but I prefer "My Wish Came True," a rockballad written by Ivory Joe Hunter. I think in the long run the B side will be the big one. Detroit's Jack Scott seems well on his way to hitville with "The Way I Walk."

After watching the Dick Clark spectacular I decided that in the future I would limit myself to watching American Bandstand and the Dick Clark Show. The McGuire Sisters got "The Record Years" off to a corny start and Les Paul and Mary Ford carried the activities right on through. Fabian performed to the delight of the teenage girls in the audience who seemed less enthusiastic when Stan Kenton appeared on the scene. Fats Domino came through well.

Duke Ellington has out one of the best releases in "The Theme From Anatomy of a Murder" the sound track. The movie, based on a book by Michigan author Robert Traver, has one of the best sound tracks I've ever heard, and Duke's first.

Another album by Johnny Mathis has been released by Columbia. "More Johnny's Greatest Hits" include "A Certain Smile," "Teach-a-Pet," "Someone," and "Small World." Volume I sold over half a million, this should do even better.

A Busy July At B'ham 'Y'

The Young Adults of the Birmingham YMCA are continuing their busy summer program. They have scheduled "A Swimming Party" and an evening at Northland Summer playhouse for July, announced by Marion Cannon, chairman.

The group will meet at the "Y" at noon Sunday, July 12, to spend the day at Metropolitan beach. Swim suits and outing clothes are in order and either a picnic lunch or purchase of one at the beach. Reservations for this event should be made with Marion Cannon, through the "Y."

To wind up the month of July the group will meet at the "Y" at 7:30 p.m. Friday, July 24, to go to Northland playhouse to enjoy an evening of theatrical entertainment. Paul Drennon is chairman for this event and reservations for tickets can be made with him by Monday, July 20.

All single young men and women between the ages 20-40 have been cordially invited to participate in these activities. For further information call the "Y."

George Bernard Shaw courted actress Ellen Terry by mail but seldom met her. He eventually married Charlotte Payne-Townsend.
