of theatre and play production along with radio and television technique. Parents and their children are invited to visit the school before the new program begins.

White Lace Dresses Worn by Attendants

Barbara Alice Bigge became the bride of Dr. John Frederic Solverson at a nuptial high mass Saturday in St. Hugo of the Hills church, Bloomfield Hills. The Rev. Francis T. Stack performed the double-ring ceremony. The couple received a papal blessing on their marriage.

Parents of the bride and groom are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Martin Bigge, of Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Franklin Solverson, of Berkeley.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta fashioned in princess lines. Chantilly lace, highlighted by small pearl sequins, trimmed the bodice and formed a front panel. The full skirt fell into a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and drop crystals. She carried a bridal bouquet consisting of a white center orchid surrounded by white roses interwined with ivy.

Katherine Bigge was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a bouffant white lace princess-style dress underlined with mint green taffeta. The dress was accented in front by a wide bow-much which extended to the hem. Her headpiece and shoes were of the matching mint green.

WEARING IDENTICAL frocks were bridesmaids Sylvia Chalk of Birmingham, Sandra McCrooy of Indianapolis; the latter two being Kappa Alpha Theta sorority sisters.

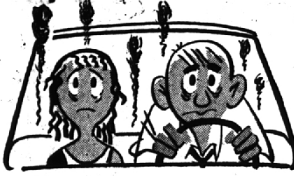

tern of the bride. All attendants carried crescent-shaped bouquets of mint green carnations and ivy. Dr. Robert Spiess, of Detroit, served as Dr. Solverson's best man. Ushers were Dr. Richard Pew of Ann Arbor, Dr. James Staskowski of Berkeley, and Robert Tripp of Birmingham.

For her daughter's wedding and

THE NEW MRS. SOLVERSON donned a costume suit of forest green Irish linen with matching shoes for her going-away attire. The outfit was highlighted by a bright yellow flowered hat and gloves.

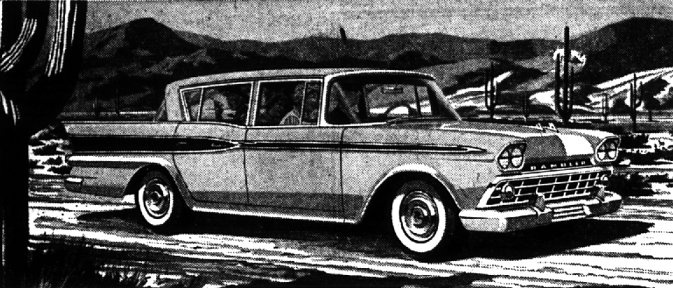

For their honeymoon Dr. and Mrs. Solverson are traveling to Fort Lauderdale for a short stay, and then departing on a cruise to Havana, Cuba and Nassau, B.W.I. Upon their return they will leave for Newport, Rhode Island, where the groom will be stationed at the U.S. Naval Hospital in Newport.

Why drive a "HOT BOX"?
