SOCIETY
Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes
from Nancy Porter
MI 4-2880

One of the nicest aspects of summer holidays is the gathering of families. Joan Paterson, who has been in town for three weeks at the Westwood drive home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton H. Paterson, left a few days ago for her home in Tucson, Ariz.

The day before she left, Mrs. Paterson entertained at a luncheon for her at the Bloomfield Hills country club. The luncheon was a mother and daughter affair, since Joan grew up in Birmingham, graduated from Kingswood school, and has many friends here whose parents are also friends of the Patersons.

This holiday brought to Birmingham Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Keenan, Jr. complete with charming southern accent from Charlotte, N. C. They and their children Davey and Julie have been dividing their stay between the Lewis C. Keenan of West Lincoln and the Junior Mrs. Keenan's sister in law, Mrs. David W. Raymond and the Junior Mrs. Keenan yesterday. They will motor home tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Getz, Jr., arrived last Friday from Shaker Heights, Ohio, to spend the Fourth of July weekend with her parents, the W. Whiting Raymond of Wilkes street. They spent the day of the Fourth at Orchard Lake Country club, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. David W. Raymond and their two children, Brooke and Robby, of Hanna street.

Funny rides, games, races, treasure hunts and swimming for the youngsters, tennis and sailing for the adults, and a picnic supper for all were climaxed by an evening of fireworks.

Many other families had Fourth of July reunions at Orchard Lake Country club. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Weir and their two children of Chesterfield road, combined picnic supper baskets with their brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weir and Mrs. Marguerite Mayne, their mother. Also joining this group mediate neighbors, who enjoyed a bridge game after luncheon.

Months of planning and organization came to a climax on Sunday. Truly the effective organization of the Birmingham Athletic club on West Maple avenue. Finished in time for the opening were a green and blue striped cabana with white trim and a peaked roof, a large lighted swimming pool, a good-sized wading pool for the children, two composition tennis courts—green in color (four more will be added later), a snack stand in operation, and umbrellas around the pool.

About 600 people plus children gathered around for the dedication ceremonies at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. Lester Dobyns of Christ Church Cranbrook read the invocation and the Right Rev. Monsignor Padlock of Holy Name church gave the Benediction.

Master of ceremonies was Richard C. Van Dusen. Frederick C. Matthei Jr. talked about the two-fold purpose for the club, that it is a family club, and also an athletic club.

Mr. Matthei introduced the manager, Robert Giles, who has had experience teaching squash and tennis at schools and clubs in England, and the swimming coach, John Wiatch, from Detroit.

Informality of dress was the rule as the members wearing sports slacks or Bermuda shorts and their wives wearing shorts or sundresses, watched an hour-long exhibition of diving (humorous and serious) by national and olympic champions and a trampoline exhibit, and later a tennis exhibit with top amateur tennis stars of Michigan.

Among the members present were Mr. and Mrs. Matthei and Mr. Matthei's father, Frederick C. Matthei, Sr., Mrs. Van Dusen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Emery Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Freeman, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Blunt.

Others were the George H. Lowdens, the Frederick E. Diefendorfs, the C. Christies, the Charles T. Fields, the C. E. Pinkstons, the Kurt Hoffmans, the Charles Lynchs, the Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Denyes, Jr.

TIMELY TIPS

- We are tired! You are tired. So why not get the most for the least?
- HERE THEY ARE—
- MULCHING—Conserves moisture thus reducing water requirements, and holds down weeds by smothering them. Use BUCKWHEAT HULLS or PEAT MOSS.
  - MOISTURE—Its presence & its amount is accurately determined with a scientific MOISTURE DETERMINING INSTRUMENT. It tells when to water, how much to water and when to quit and get yourself a drink—of water.
  - BROWN LAWNS—Can be due to lack of water, lack of nutrients or fungus problems. A generous going over of irregular areas of dead or brown patches with ACTI DIONE—RZ may reduce or eliminate further progress of possible diseases. The browning is often due to the sudden release of nitrogen by the action of mycelium and it burns the grass. Water will not put out the fire.
  - YELLOWING EVERGREENS—This is not water saturation. It is caused by RED SPIDERS. Spray them with a full hose stream and, when dry, spray with Mc-B Insect Spray, or ISOTOX.

Also spray with these materials the phlox, primrose and hollyhocks if they show yellowing leaves.

5. PEONIES—Feed with AGRICO, 5-10-5 or GARD-N-GRO, 4-12-4, as soon as the petals drop. Use 2 lbs. to 100 sq. ft.

6. TOMATOES—Phenants love water and tomatoes are about 95% H<sub>2</sub>O. To save them and please the discerning phenants put pans of water at each end of the patch.

Dust plants with ROTENONE for T. Worms.

7. GRAPES—Douglas Cleaner plastic suit and shirt covers are better protectors than paper bags.

8. CORN—3 or 5 (or 6 if you are wealthy) drops of ordinary mineral oil on the corn silk will control the corn ear worms.

9. BAMBOO SCREENS—Wonderful 1 1/2" bamboo canes wired together, sturdy, weather proof and handsome. Can be used for shielding shrubs from wind and sun, sun bathers from peeping Toms, baldheads from sun and rain.

10. FERTILIZING PLANTS—NEVER apply a fertilizer when the soil is dry. If it is dry water it well, apply the fertilizer, water it in.

11. DIRECTIONS—A guy will spend hours reading up on how to make a planter's punch but spend no time reading the instructions on a bottle of insecticide, fungicide or herbicide.

Know what you are spraying for and use the proper material for that purpose. Follow the mixing instructions on the letter. For instance, sulphur should not be used when the temperature is above 80° or injury may result.

12. SCALE—GET YOUR TREES SPRAYED TODAY FOR THE MORE EFFECTIVE CONTROL OF LECANUM (SOFT BROWN) SCALE. Don't blame us for not reminding you!!

14. CUT FLOWERS—Take a pail of water into the garden with your shears and you. Immediately plunge the cut flowers into the water. Keep pail in a cool dark place for a few hours before arranging the flowers.

15. BIRD BATHS—Your home grounds will be more exciting if you ACCENT them with a BIRD BATH, a STONE FIGURE, or a FOUNTAIN. Nothing like birds, running water & rolling stones to create a point of interest. What's the use?

16. GRILLS & ACCESSORIES—Since we have to make room for the coming season these items are available at 20% off on grills and 10% on accessories. (Such things as charcoal, briquettes, lighter materials, etc., are not considered to be accessories).

17. TRANSPLANTING—Use Wilt-PRUF when moving trees, shrubs and young seedlings.

18. TROJAN POWER SPRAYER—is now available at 10% off the list. Why pay someone else to do a simple job for you? 10 Gallons—60 lbs. pressure!

19. THE REASON—why you couldn't get in touch with us yesterday (Wednesday) is because you forgot that we are

It was old-home-week for Birminghamites in downtown Detroit last week. Among the area residents who witnessed "Anatomy of a Murder" a week ago Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. William T. Gossett of Gooding road and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker before going on to the premiere.

For a rare occasion, the Savoyard club on the 25th floor of the Buhl building was opened to the ladies last Friday noon and evening.

Lucky were those who caught sight of the Queen of England in a red dress standing on the deck of the royal yacht "Britannia" as it departed for Chicago.

Among those at the Birmingham club were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis C. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Cox and family, and Charles F. Delbridge Jr., who expected to be joined by Mrs. Delbridge later in the evening for the viewing of the fireworks, which climaxed Freedom Festival week in Detroit.

Another Birmingham family who witnessed the unusual fireworks (created and supervised by Toshio Ogata, president of Japan's largest fireworks firm) were Mr. and Mrs. James E. Burbot of Chestnut street.

In honor of son Matthew's fifth birthday the Burbotts packed their two children (ranging in age from nine years down to 16 months) and a picnic supper in the car for the trek down to the Fort Shelby hotel, where Mrs. Burbot's father, U. S. Federal Judge Frank A. Piccini, has a room during the week he holds court in Detroit.

Mrs. Burbot's brother, Frank A. Picard II, and his wife and four young children were also present. Groups of delight and awe issued from the Buhl building office of Mr. J. Thomas Martin of Cranbrook road as his wife and their sons, John and Jim, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Manhard with son, Rick, watched multi-colored chrysanthemum blossom in the sky.

This was the second successive evening spent in Detroit for both couples. The Martins had celebrated their fourteenth wedding anniversary on July 8. Mr. and Mrs. Larry McManus joined them for dinner at the DAC and then to hear Park Murphy and his jazz band.

The Martin boys are looking forward to July 25 when they will depart for Sharrow camp.

Spending family July Fourth weekend out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John Kice of Villa road, who related at "Blitz" that their son, John Kice's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Piles at Pine Lake near Linden, Mich.

Mrs. Jack U. Klarr with children Kelle, Kelly, and Ginner returned from her parents' cottage in Leamington, Ontario, to her Chesterfield road home just in time to help Mr. Klarr pack for a trip to Harvard university for a two-week business administration course. Also the Harvard business school this week is Jervis B. McKeohan, who is attending an executive conference.

Mrs. Charles Himmelhoch and Mrs. Theodore F. Eizer gave a surprise party for the late Mrs. Eizer's nephew at Mrs. Eizer's Lakeside road home. Guests were their interested neighbors, who enjoyed a bridge game after luncheon.
