Garden Club Holds Spring Flower Show

GILBERT LAKE—The Gilbert Lake Estates garden club held their spring flower show Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schreppe of Cottondale lane. Theme of this year's show was "Patriotic Flowers."

Everyone brought prize specimens of roses, annuals and perennials which were judged for ribbons. Ribbons were also awarded for the best floral arrangements. The Dale Millers and the George Dugans won the most ribbons. There was also a flower arranging contest for children. Each child was given a Dixie cup with a flag as a container for their flowers and the judges awarded a prize to every child.

At a recent meeting the garden club elected new officers. Mrs. Albert E. Badger is president; Mrs. Dale Miller, Jr., vice-president and program chairman and Mrs. William Barrett, secretary-treasurer.

Flotating down the river kept a few Gilbert Lakers cool on the Fourth of July. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roberts of North Darlington invited a group of friends to spend the day cruising with them on their family boat. Their guests were Mrs. Roberts' sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cowley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clifford Brinkman, Mr. and Mrs. John Fieck, Mr. and Mrs. Keith McKenny and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fritz.

Big news at the Francis Gallaudet home on Shadow lane last weekend was the announcement of their daughter's engagement at a cocktail party Saturday evening. The Gallaudet home was gala for Janet, everyone knows her as Jeff) and her fiancé, Ralph A. Sturges, III, son of Dr. Sturges, Jr., of New York.

Jeff and Ralph dashed home for the party from New York where Jeff works. Ralph's father and

Couple Returns From Motor Trip

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP NORTH—Just back after a two-week motor trip to points west are Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Walsh of North Gleggery. They stopped in Milwaukee where they were joined by Mrs. Walsh's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Danaher.

Heading west they toured points of interest until they reached Denver where they visited the Danaher's son. Then returned home through Estes Park and the Black Hills.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Salmon fishing was the big attraction in Maine for H. J. Thomsen of Ardmore drive. After a week of roughing it he came back to civilization in New York where Mrs. Thomsen joined him for a New York whirl of nightclubbing and shows.

The Thomsen's son, Jay, left last week with a group of boys and girls for a guided tour through the southwest.

LOCHSLEA—Members of the Alex Clark, Jr. family on Apple lane are busy with summer jobs and fun. Two of the Clark's sons, Bob and Ricky are spending the summer as swimming counselors at Charles Howell Scout reservation in Brighton. Another son, Sandy is home for the summer from MSU and is operating his own travel business here. He has been conducting for the past seven years. The Clark family spent most of the holiday weekend sailing at the Pontiac Yacht club.

DEVON BROOK—There's a big splash three times a week at the Charles W. Wagner home on Devon Brook. The big splash is all the neighborhood children arriving for their swimming lesson. Mrs. Wagner made arrangements for Mary Jo Gluckstadt to come and instruct
