Good Turnout Opens Arts Festival

This is but a small portion of the nearly 1,000 spectators who turned out to watch the opening ceremonies of the Birmingham Arts Festival Saturday morning. People did not have to crowd together to hear welcoming addresses from Arts Festival chairman Harvey S. Kresge and Mayor Harry M. Denyes, Jr., at Quarton Falls. The people turned out to see local girls welcome the Festival with a "Dance on the Green."

Fractures Wrist In Auto Mishap

A Birmingham woman suffered slight injuries when struck by a car, at Pierce and East Brown Mon-day morning. Mrs. Clara Heinrich, 70, of 1829 South Bates, received a fractured left wrist when abe was atruck by the control of the control of the con-wein, 30, of Waterford.

wein, 30, of Waterford.

Mrs. Heinrich was released from Beaumont hospital Tuesday in good" condition, hospital authorties reported.

She was struck while crossing Brown. Ortwein was making a left turn from Pierce across the pedes-trian walk, was traveling at about five or ten miles per hour, he told

Those who hunt with a bow may now have "shotgun arrows." The tip contains steel datts that out-run the arrow and form a typical shotgun pattern.

Let's Not Hold Summer Events in School Gyms

Even pretty music can't soothe the perspiration-soaked brows of the audiences forced to attend June events at Birmingham high school's gymmasium.

Nor can the wise words from a baccalaureate sermon or graduation speech really get through the radiating heat waves to the miserable masses huddled together in the gymmasium's still, searing air.

The unbearable heat suffered by audiences at the gymnasium last week, and the prospect of more discomfort facing baccalaureate and commencement audiences next week, have convinced me that this community needs relief.

I DO NOT propose that Birmingham build a huge new auditor of the propose of more discomfort facing baccalaureate and commencement audiences next week, have convinced me that this community needs relief.
