

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday, June 11, 1959

SECTION

—Why do we cherish the memories of a variety of former incidents in our lives—often more warmly, it seems, than we do similar current incidents? Or did we really enjoy them when they happened . . . and now, nostalgically, they only seem to be more precious in memory? Perhaps the answer lies in the fact that we cannot return to former scenes . . . to former friendship situations . . . to earlier sentiments.

Named to 'Top 50' in MSU Ceremonies

EAST LANSING — Two Birmingham students, Lucille M. Greenwalt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Greenwalt, 1386 Willow Lane and Nancy L. Yarnall, daughter of J. C. Yarnall, 1009 Suffield, were among the 50 outstanding graduating senior women selected at Michigan State University.

Announcement of the selections was made Sunday (May 31) at Lantern Night, the traditional procession and recognition ceremony for senior women.

The 50 students were chosen for their scholastic achievement, participation in campus organizations and service to the university.

Detroit is the only major city outside of New York that has teams in the major league professional baseball, football, hockey and basketball leagues.

One Year to Go

Charles H. Lindner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lindner, Sr., 590 Wellesley Drive, has completed his junior year at Moravian College, Bethlehem, Pa., where he is majoring in business administration.

Commencement and Baccalaureate services will be held in Johnson Hall on the campus and in Central Moravian Church Sunday, June 7.

Sophomore Studies Superior Student

A Birmingham sophomore is scheduled to take part in the Inter-University Conference on the Superior Student at the University of Michigan, Tuesday, June 16.

Janet E. Miller, 811 Tottenham road, will participate in a colloquium with Robert C. Angell, U-M sociology professor, and six other sophomore students.

The conference, June 14 to 17, will draw participants from 35 state and municipal colleges and universities from the east and mid-west. Its purpose is to encourage an interchange of information on honors programs among publically supported schools.

Wins 'Grand Prix' From, for French

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass. — A local resident has been awarded a French Government prize at Mount Holyoke College. She is Miss Jo Frederickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Vogt of 515 Pleasant.

Now a freshman at Mount Holyoke, she was graduated from Kingswood School, Bloomfield Hills.

French Government prizes are awarded to outstanding students in the French department. Announcement was made at a special dinner held in the French House at Mount Holyoke.

French Consul General to Boston Charles de Lamoignon and Mme. de Lamoignon were guests of honor.

Joins Upper Five In Freshman Year

HOUGHTON, Mich. — Hugh R. McQueen was among those honored at the annual Honors convocation held recently at Michigan college of mining and technology.

McQueen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. McQueen, 621 Henley, Birmingham, received class honors for being in the upper five per cent of his class. He is a freshman and is majoring in mechanical engineering.

'Biz-Ad' Award To Dartmouth Grad

HANOVER, N. H. — Donald E. Dorough, of Birmingham, was recently awarded the Haskins & Sells Foundation award at the Amos Tuck school of business administration at Dartmouth college.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jere T. Dorough, 32262 Beaconsfield.

The $500 award is given to the second-year Tuck student who plans a public-accounting career and has demonstrated excellence in scholarship, willingness to accept responsibility, leadership and a high standard of personal conduct.

A 1958 graduate of Dartmouth, Dorough is scheduled to receive his master of business administration this month.

A Real Sportsman, She Takes 3 Awards

WINTER PARK, Fla. — Judith Ann Earle, a Rollins college senior from Birmingham, was presented three athletic awards at the Honors Day program, June 3.

She was recognized for her outstanding sportsmanship and ability on the water-ski team. She was presented the emblem and blazer awards by the "R" club for her participation in nine varieties.

A graduate of Kingswood school, Bloomfield, Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Earle, 24275 14 Mile road.
