Presbyterian Church Scene of Ceremony

First Presbyterian church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Diana Jeanne Schaad and Dennis Craig Moriarty. The Rev. Glen Harris performed the two o'clock ceremony in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schaad of Rugby circle, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Moriarty of Hills drive, Birmingham.

A FLOWERED CAP with elbow-length veil of French illusion accented the bride's gown of white silk organza featuring a bustle back, shirred bodice, short sleeves and round neckline. Her bouquet consisted of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Honor attendant, Carol Wild of W. Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills, wore a white lace over green satin dress featuring a full skirt. Gowned in white lace over yellow satin were the bridesmaids, Johanna Schurrer of Birmingham and Mrs. Edward Serravallo of Pontiac. They all wore small white hats and carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

THE GROOM ASKED David Parker of Franklin to be best man. Seating the guests were James Siskles and James Doyle, both of Birmingham.

The bride's mother greeted guests in her home following the ceremony in a pink silk sheath with matching accessories. Mrs. Moriarty selected a green silk or-gandy dress with matching accessories.
