

Norma Lee Kass, Jimmy Joe Murphy To Wed in Summer

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burton Kass of Chestnut street, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Norma Lee, to Jimmy Joe Murphy, son of Mr. Charles Luther Murphy of Morrow, Ga., and the late Mr. Murphy.

Norma Lee attended the University of Michigan and is a graduate of the Henry Ford hospital school of nursing. Jim is a graduate of the University of Georgia and a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

The wedding will take place at St. James Episcopal church on August 29.

Attendants Gowned In White Organdy

A Bermuda honeymoon followed the Saturday wedding of Lynne Davison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. A. Davison of Buckingham drive, Birmingham, to Charles Frederick Clippert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison F. Clippert of Detroit.

Vows were exchanged at a late afternoon wedding officiated by Dr. Kenneth Gass at St. James Episcopal church.

The groom's father acted as his son's best man while Mark C. Davison of Birmingham, George H. Clippert of Camden, Ark., and John R. Clippert of Dearborn served as ushers.

The bride's sister, Gail Davison, was maid of honor and Nancy Clippert of Camden, Ark., Mrs. George H. Clippert, also of Camden, and Mrs. John K. Clippert of Dearborn were her attendants.

Gowned in a full-skirted white silk tulle with tightly fitted sleeves and a Sabrina neckline edged in Alencon lace, the bride carried white carnations and lily. Her finger-tip veil had lace floral inserts.

Her sister wore demure white organdy with a blue sash which matched the small head band of blue ribbon. Her bouquet was yellow carnations.

The bridesmaids all wore the same dresses as the honor attendant.

AT THE RECEPTION which followed at Rotunda Inn, Mrs. Davison was seen wearing a blue and white linen dress, accented by blue shoes and a white orchid which matched her accessories.

Mrs. Clippert greeted guests in a green shantung sheath with a matching collar and white hat.

The couple will make their home in Dearborn.

Bloomfield Village Village Association Elects New Officers

The Bloomfield Village association May meeting elected F. A. Sawyer, Walter R. Naas and Edwin Olsen to replace retiring trustees, Louis A. Bauer, Nelson A. Miles and Robert V. Hackett. Discussions that evening included Village improvements, road conditions, new addition to the firehall, township zoning and techniques of insect control.

At a board meeting June 3, in addition to their assignments to serve on various commissions, James Van Hook was elected president of the trustees, Harrison Wilder, vice president; Henry T. Schlachter, treasurer; and Edwin Olsen, secretary.

Trustee for sewer and water problems is Carl F. Beier. Trustee for roads is Henry Schlachter, assisted by F. A. Sawyer. The police department problems are handled by Charles Duryea Jr., fire department by Walter Naas. Trustee for civic improvement is Dr. Fred Adams, assisted by F. A. Sawyer.

The Harrison Wilders of Hamilton road had houseguests last week. Brother-in-law, Ray Smith of Florida visited in the middle of the week and former villagers, the Richard Scheyes, spent a long week-end with them.

The Scheyes have just moved to Cleveland from Seattle and with daughters, Donna and Debby, took advantage of their nearness to the Village to see former neighbors.

Delighted with their new grand-daughter, Elisabeth Louise, are the Whitney W. Bucks of N. Cranbrook road.

Born April 21, she is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Herman Schurstein of Detroit. Her dad has just received his doctor's degree and will be interning at Women's hospital. Her mother is the former Mamie Buck.

Delightfully refreshed from a trip on the Queen Mary, Mrs. Charles Clyde Adams of Morningview Terrace has just returned from a seven week tour of Europe. Met by her daughters, Mrs. Edward Callahan, in Nice, France, they toured France, Italy and Switzerland together. Mrs. Callahan and her husband are spending six months this year on the coast of Spain near Valencia.

Mrs. Adams' tour also included England, Holland, Germany and Belgium.

New neighbors on Waddington road are the Robert C. Aveyers, seven year old Linda, five year old Tom and 9 month old Lisa.

Aveyer is with Aveyer family in Detroit. They have been living in Foxcroft, are bridge players and he enjoys a good game of golf. They both are graduates of Michigan State university. Aveyer is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. They are still chuckling the Thursday evening performance last week of the "Bloomfield Eccentrics".

The new family on Covington Place are the G. Russell Links. He is a sales manager for Central Steel and Wire. They have lived out north Adams for the past five years, though Chicago was originally their home.
