Bride Wears Gown Of White Silk Taffeta

Sarah Nichols became the bride of Craig Ackerman Saturday afternoon at St. Stephens church, East Grand Rapids. The Rev. Msgr. James A. Bryant performed the 12:30 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols of East Grand Rapids, wore a gown of blossom white silk taffeta blended with embroidered organza and bell-shaped skirt. She carried a bouquet of shattered carnations and stephanotis. A headpiece of white organza and seed pearls secured her French illusion veil.

LEAH NICHOLS, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaid was George Bassett. They appeared in white silk dresses with bell-shaped skirts and wide bands of yellow organza encircling the hem-line. Bouquets consisted of yellow daisies.

The groom, son of Mrs. John R. Ackerman of Colonial court, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Ackerman, asked Holt Ackerman to be best man. Ushers were Arvid Kalen, Kenneth MacQueen and Howard Liverance.

The bride's going away outfit was a blue linen suit with a blue flowered hat and black accessories. The newlyweds left for the Canadian Rockies.

MOTHER OF THE BRIDE wore

a white face over champagne taffeta dress and a corsage of yellow spray orchids. Mrs. Ackerman chose a powder blue lace and taffeta dress with a corsage of pink spray orchids.

Radcliffe Members Elect Officers At Annual Meeting

The annual meeting for the election of officers for the Radcliffe College club of Detroit was last week at the home of Mrs. Oliver Rodgers, 985 W. Winton, Birmingham.

Newly elected officers are president, Mrs. Edward J. Grabow; vice president, Mrs. Oliver Rodgers; secretary, Mrs. Lawrence H. Hyde, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. John M. Graham.

A scholarship is awarded annually by the local alumnae group to a qualified high school student from the greater Detroit area who wishes to attend Radcliffe, which is located in Cambridge, Mass., and is co-educational with Harvard college.

AT THE MEETING, mention was made of the number of undergraduate clubs at Radcliffe and Harvard which have merged since approval was granted the past year.

Of special interest was the announcement that a member of Radcliffe's class of '92 has the distinction of being the first woman chosen for the editorial board of the Harvard Crimson, the undergraduate newspaper at Harvard.

Appropriately enough, she is Alice Patterson Albright, a daughter of Josephine Medill Patterson Albright and now the fifth generation journalist in the famous Patterson-McCormick dynasty.

Appointed Chairman

Mrs. Howard S. Christie of Southfield road, Birmingham, has been named hospitality chairman and member of the program planning committee of the Greater Detroit area council of hospital auxiliaries for the coming year. Mrs. Christie is the immediate past-president of the Women's Service committee of William Beaumont hospital.
