Hearing Monday On 14-Southfield Rezoning Request

BEVERLY HILLS—Requests for ERO zoning at the southeast corner of 14 Mile and Southfield come up for a second public hearing this morning before the Beverly Hills village council.

The hearings are scheduled for 8:30 a.m. at the village-township hall. The educational, research and office zoning is sought by Archie Addison and Miller Homes, Inc., owners of the property, now zoned residential.

Addison has filed a complaint against the village in Oakland county circuit court, because of its previous refusal of his request. The land owner earlier showed the village council preliminary drawings of an office building proposed for the corner, but his rezoning request was refused. The village must answer to his complaint in court June 18.

Greenfield Scouts End Activities

BEVERLY HILLS—Greenfield school's Girl Scout Troop 29 wound up its year's activities with a progressive lunch last June 6.
