

It universally is agreed that one cannot see, enjoy, the scenery when he is passing it so rapidly. Is it not equally true that one cannot wisely and happily direct his way through life unless he takes time to think about what he wants to say or do, in advance? Very few of us can honestly deny that we travel too fast . . . and think too fast, too superficially.

Wedding Bells Ring For June Brides

MRS. DONALD J. MUIR

To Make Home In Columbus

Sandra Joan Puls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Puls of Linden road, Birmingham, was married Saturday at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church to Donald James Muir, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dalrymple Muir of Jackson, Mich. Dr. W. Glen Harris performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride's gown of chantilly lace and tulle over white satin was trimmed with iridescent sequins. Her tiered illusion veil was held by a contour crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

MATRON OF HONOR was the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry H. Simank of Farmington. Bridesmaids were Sara Dunn of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Henry Morris of Pontiac. They wore sheath dresses of cotton blue chantilly type lace with matching hats. The attendants carried bouquets of white daisies.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose silk chiffon dress with matching flowered hat and accessories. The groom's mother chose a blue silk linen dress with matching accessories.

BERNARD J. NEVILLE served as best man. Ushers were Robert M. Kiple, Robert Mitchell, Harry Simank and Robert Sterling.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of the University of Michigan, the groom having received his master's degree in civil engineering this past week.

A reception was in the social hall of the church following the ceremony.

AFTER A TRIP through Northern Michigan the couple will make their home in Columbus, Ohio, where the groom has accepted a position with North American Aviation, Inc.
