mover-weryfuling.
But yesterday, of all things,
Cap rattled into town behind the wheel of his old car. Naturally, all of us wanted to find out "How come?"
"Bought it back," said Cap, "Tm now a two-car family. I like my new car because it looks real modern—but I like this car because it's real me!"

From where I sit, all of us have certain affections that grow more a part of us with each passing year. For instance, when I think of Saiurday night, I always think of my easy hair and a cold glass of beer. Your idea may be something less. But let's not ask each other to "change"—let's just respect the other fellow's preference. Agreed?
