Westchester Club Plans Family Picnic in August

WESTCHESTER—The Westchester Women's club executive board met at the home of Mrs. John Bryant of Heathfield drive last week. The Aug. 2 family picnic will be at the Ivory Polo Farms.

Co-chairmen, Mrs. John Garner and Mrs. Jay Cumber, held a committee meeting in the home of Mrs. John Garner of Pebble Lane earlier in the week to make arrangements for the picnic. Other members of the committee include Mrs. William Conney, Mrs. Chester King and Mrs. Robert Doran.

Mrs. Gail Garber of Westbourne court, chairman of the Art Group, reports that there will be two more sessions this spring. The present group and a new beginners group will start meeting next fall.

Mrs. Robert Weir of Bradford drive east plans to have arrangements complete for the women's

Is It Really Good to be Home, After 5 Months in Nassau?

BERKSHIRES—The George Scotti home on Parkstone lane is a hive of activity. When they arrived home after a five-month trip, they discovered a bird had been in their home and did considerable damage. And, their furnace blew!

Mr. and Mrs. Scotti were in Nassau for five months where Scotti had engagements at the British Colonial and the new Nassau Beach Lounge. Between these two engagements Scotti played for eight weeks in Saratoga, Fla. Scotti opens Monday at the Guildwood Inn in Saratoga.

Arriving home about the same time as her parents was daughter, Judy. She has completed her freshman year at Ferris Institute.

A patio punch party was given Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. John Keller. Guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. James Trass of Lake Forest, Illinois. The Trass were former residents of the Berkshires.

In her home on Middlebury Lane, performing in the recital were Pam Rainey, Nancy Selver, Richard Jacob, Marianne Piggott, Mary Fellmeth, Jimmy and Dorothy Fleming, Marlene Gary and Anne Ramsey.

A piano recital was sponsored last week by Mrs. John E. Pokorny
