35 Broken Windows
In Search of Four Young Marksmen

One-by-one 35 broken windows at Quanton school found their owners this week as four boys owned up to breaking them.

Birmingham juvenile division officer, Lt. Jack Kaldichak questioned the boys at the school. They admitted at first only to shooting pellet guns in the area.

Slowly they began admitting a few broken windows, then a few more, then a few more. "The total kept growing," Kaldichak said, until they were all accounted for.

Disposition of the youths is being left up to the school, he said.

Books and Pencils Yield to Casts, Stitches, Bandages

School was hardly out when two area youngsters were injured June 18, in their near full-time pursuit of play.

O'Neill L. Dillon, Jr., 12 of 1231 Yosemite, was taken to William Beaumont hospital, Royal Oak, with a cut left elbow and concussion when he rode a bicycle down a driveway into the path of a car driven by Roger Ramesbottom, 34, of 44 Oakdale, Detroit.

Ramesbottom was driving north on Adams when the boy cut into the street. Ramesbottom told police he swerved, trying to avoid the boy.

The bicycle hit the right front fender of the car, throwing the boy to the pavement.

Ronald Reinhardt, 577 Kimberly, was struck on the head by a brick dropped by a companion from the second story of a new house on Melbourne.

Several stitches were required to close the cut, but the boy received no concussion.

Traffic Mishaps Injure 6

JUDY HOLCOMB, 15, 888 Wimpleton, Birmingham; MRS. MIL-
DRED CURTIS, 50, Grasse Pointe Wood; J. T. SEAY (the new police and LEONARD P. CURTIS, 50,

Grasse Pointe Woods; LANGLEY
E. SMART, 97, Rochester.

Misses Holcomb and Stevenson were injured Sunday evening when the car they were driving was struck from behind by one driven by Roy E. Welsh, 54, Pontiac. The girls were waiting to pull into a drive-in restaurant in the north-bound lane of Woodward.

Police advised the girls to see family doctors. Miss Stevenson for an injured knee, Miss Holcomb for possible neck injuries.

Welsh was ticketed for failure to stop.

The Curtises and Seay were injured Saturday when the car Curtis was driving struck a parked car occupied by Seay on Hunter, north of Haines.

Mrs. Curtis was treated at William Beaumont hospital, Royal Oak. She suffered a cut left hand and was treated for a cut on the chin. Seay received possible neck injuries.

Curtis was arrested for failure to stop and Seay for parking on a highway without lights.

Smart was injured at 8:15 a.m. Monday when the truck he was driving was struck by Warwick and Abbey by another truck driven by Joseph W. Raymann, 42, of 1800 Birmingham Boulevard.

Raymann, police said, failed to stop at the intersection. He was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way to the vehicle on the right.
