BUSINESS BRIEFS

Barren Smith Greeted at Clinic

A full house greeted Barron Smith last week at the Birmingham Community House. A former organist with the Robert Wagner Chorale and Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians, Smith played and explained the organ and its different tone keys. He was brought here by the Gallagher Music Co. for its second annual clinic.

Former Birmingham Man Manager at Whirlpool Corp.

Appointment of Ben Bernt, who formerly lived at 770 Graefield Court, Birmingham, as director of manufacturing engineering at the Marion division of the Whirlpool corporation was announced last week by Jasper Hart, general manager.

Mr. Bernt comes to Whirlpool from the Chrysler corporation in Detroit where he was employed in financial, engineering and production capacities.

Born in Austria, Mr. Bernt holds degrees from the Institute of Technology, and the University of Commerce in Vienna, and Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh.

While living in Michigan Mr. Bernt taught in the evening divisions of the University of Detroit and Wayne State University.

He is a member of the Institute of Management Sciences Society for Advancement of Management, and the Association of Computing Machinery.

Wm. Bronsing Joins Data Processing

DETROIT — William Bronsing, 1109 N. Woodward, Birmingham, has been appointed vice president-administration for Data Processing Institute, Inc., 1507 Griswold.

Bronsing, with 20 years of experience in all phases of selling, was head of the vacant land department for the Benjamin & Stevens real estate Co., prior to joining DPI, an IBM data processing and tabulating school.

The appointment was announced by V. J. Bronsing (his brother), president of DPI.

Have you seen our sports editor's crystal ball in action?

Our Detroit Times sports editor slyly claims he owns a crystal ball.

And you might almost believe him if you caught his year-old prediction of the Terry Brennan firing on the Detroit Times Sports Pages.

Remember? It was in September 1957 that Ed Hayes told you that Terry Brennan would be through as Notre Dame's football coach after his next losing season... that his replacement would be the Washington Redskins' Joe Kuharich.

And that's exactly what happened in December 1958!

We think you'll agree... it doesn't much matter whether a crystal ball or an undisclosable inside source was behind this story! The point is... you can expect intriguing forecasting and honest reporting when you read the Times Sports Section.
