

Former Resident Visits Bloomfield Village

Visitor in the Village last week was Mrs. B. A. Koether. She came from her new home in Bronxville, N. Y., to pick up son, David from Cranbrook. New owners of her home on Broadway boulevard are the John J. Aherns of Chicago.

A most interesting family, who enjoy music together, play the organ and piano. Fourteen-year-old Janet, is a former quiz kid who has made public appearances with Joe Kelley throughout the United States and Hawaii. Son, Owen, has just finished his first semester at Michigan State and is employed for the summer by the Michigan Inspection Bureau in Detroit.

Ahern is director of security for General Motors Corp. A graduate of Illinois Institute of Technology where he was professor and director of departments of fire protection and safety engineering for 15 years, he also had his own consulting firm and served on Chicago's three-man civil service commission. Ahern had a television show of his own called "Test Lab" and was given a distinguished service award from the alumnae association of his alma mater.

Mrs. Ahern is a graduate of University of Chicago where she was a member of the Wyvern club. Ahern's fraternity is Theta Xi. They are new members of Oakland Hills Country club.

Twenty-four young folks celebrated graduation from the sixth grade with a coke party at Linda Thomason's home on Ardmore drive recently.

The George Lowdens of Half Moon road have just returned from a trip East. They visited relatives in Philadelphia and spent four days in Atlantic City enjoying the beach and golf at Seaview Golf club.

Toby Daniels, son of the W. A. Daniels of Burning Bush has received his degree in business administration from Georgetown university and his commission in the Air Force. He has returned to Washington, reporting to Bolling Field this time.

Guests this weekend at the Franklin Roberts' home on Hamilton road are Mrs. Robert's sister, Mrs. Leslie Steinbach and twins, Raya and Jon of Sault Ste. Marie. The Roberts' daughter, Jayne, celebrated her sixth birthday Monday. Enjoying lunch and the Tom Thumb malines with Jayne were Julie Richardson, Leslie Green, C. C. and Ann Stone and Betty Worsham.

Franklin Jr. leaves tomorrow for a month at Camp Charlevoix. Bill will camp at D.A. Ranch with his Scout patrol in July and John will attend Y Day camp this summer.

Houseguests for 10 days recently at the N. Cranbrook road home of Dr. and Mrs. Dale F. Christman were Mrs. Christman's sister, Capt. Pierson, and her husband, Major Pierson, of the Air Force, stationed at Westover Field near Springfield, Mass.

Several luncheons were given in Capt. Pierson's honor; much golf was played, and pool parties attended during their stay.

The Christmas children, Sandy Donna, Linda and Tommy flew to Dayton, Ohio, today for a 10-day visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Christman. It was the first time the three youngest have flown without their parents.

New residents on N. Glangarry are the Harry W. Butts recently of Suburban Philadelphia. Their children are Allison 8, Laurie 6 and Leslie 3.

Butts is western manager of special financial division for Burroughs Corp. They are both graduates of Susquehanna university where Mrs. Butts was a Kappa Delta. Boating, fishing, golf and bridge are enjoyed by the Butts.

Former Resident Engaged to Wed

Mr. and Mrs. William Grayson Shearin announces the engagement of their daughter, Mary Anne, to Thomas Aloysius Griffin III, son of Mrs. Thomas Aloysius Griffin, Jr., of New Smyrna Beach, Fla., formerly of Birmingham, and the late Mr. Griffin.

The bride-elect attended Brenau college, Gainesville, Ga., and Middle Tennessee State college. She is member of the Murfreesboro Girls' Gullion club and of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Her fiance graduated from Birmingham high school, attended Richard Montgomery high school, Rockville, Md., and is a senior at Georgia Institute of Technology. He was a member of DJFR preparatory school fraternity and is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. The wedding will be solemnized Sept. 12.
