'Duck!'

Frank Howland winds up to down a pair of bowling pins in a miniature "circus" staged in the backyard of Larry Vogt, 5922 E. Millerway, Bloomfield township. David Smith (center) and Larry (right) put on the circus to raise funds for summer camp. Profits were high, the young ringmaster reported.

News and Views
Off the Record
"Hushabye" by the Mystics is, in my opinion, the best vocal group effort since last summer when "Little Star" and "You Cheated" were riding high. It has a "Dion and the Belmonts" sound. Connie Francis and Frankie Avalon both have the best two sided releases in the country. Connie is scoring well with "Lipstick on Your Collar." 15 and 16 in Billboard, and Frankie is doing just as well with "Bobby Sox to Stockings." 20, and "A Boy Without a Girl." 28. "Small World" is doing well for Johnny Mathis, "Forty Days" by Ronnie Hawkins is selling, but "Twist Twelve and Twenty" will be a bomb.

The results of a few recent polls show a new crop of artists coming up into the big time. The best example of sudden success is that of young Frankie Avalon, who has now been acclaimed the top solo vocalist in the nation. Louis Prima and Keely Smith have become the top night club act and The Kingston Trio have, without a doubt, become the best album sellers. The biggest album of the year, so far, has been Mancini's "Peter Gunn" and the top single has been Frankie's "Venus."

Jazz artists: this week, the trombone, 1) J. J. Johnson, 2) Bob Brookmeyer, 3) Jack Teagarden, 4) Kai Winding and 5) Turk Murphy.

There are two ways of exerting one's strength, one is pushing down, the other is pulling up.
