

Sixth Graders Feted In Walnut School Gym

BLOOMFIELD WEST—The gymnasium at the Walnut Lake school was transformed June 15 into a veritable flower garden for a party honoring 57 members of the sixth grade class.

A take-off on the Edward R. Murrow television show was entitled "Persons are People" and revolved around an interview of a farm family. The part of the mother was played by Penny Pittard, the father by Roy Hamilton, the son by Craig Greenhills, the hard-of-hearing grandfather by Jack Nicholls, while Mill Dull portrayed the announcer.

Other acts included a dance by Billy Long, a pantomime by Janet Harber and Greg Sanders, a piano solo by J. W. Aiken, two short skits by Bruce McDonald, Randy Frazier and Fred Pavelka, and a skit by Tom Holmes and Ken Brown.

The Nola Peasley award for scholarship and citizenship was awarded to Karen Hufnagle, the finalists were Doug Jordin, Lynda Murray, Joan Schmalzer and Susan Turner.

Ray Collick acted as master of ceremonies.

The committee responsible for the beautiful decorations and the refreshments were Mrs. Donald Aiken, Mrs. Thomas Holmes, Mrs. Ernest Murray, Mrs. Carl Morse and Mrs. Henry Gregorich.

Miss Patricia McKenzie of Detroit spent the weekend as a guest of the Clyde Faltens at their home on Meadowlake road. The Faltens entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Donnelly of Lathrup Suday.

Under a canopy of stars and towering trees, members of troop 318 settled down for the night in the Nahabedian back yard, June 12.

Earlier in the evening the girls hosted their parents with a typical quick American meal out of doors and entertained them with a puppet show, knot tying relay, a tricky performance with linné sticks and an exhibition of various badge earning items.

Mrs. James Roberts, neighborhood chairman, was a special guest and assisted the leader, Mrs. James

Named Top Sixth Grader

MEADOWLAKE—Karen Hufnagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hufnagle, was honored recently as the outstanding sixth grade student at Walnut Lake school. Karen was awarded the Nola Peasley memorial trophy and a $25 bond for her achievement in scholarship and citizenship. Her name will be inscribed on the office plaque. The award is given each year in memory of Nola Peasley, a Walnut Lake school teacher for four years before her death.

Scouts Receive Awards at Picnic

WALNUT LAKE—The picnic on June 14 was an important one for all the Cub Scouts of pack 41 of Walnut Lake, particularly for Randy Jacobson.

Randy, who lives at 2215 Walnut Lake road, was graduated into Boy Scout troop 41 on that evening. Pack committee members used the occasion to give Randy every possible honor including lowering the colors during the flag ceremony with his brother Webelos acting as the color guard.

One-year pins were given to Billy Correy, John Morris, Tim Latham, Tom LeLacheur, Mark Moore, John Steele and Stephen Wray. Bruce Foster, Jeffrey Thompson, Mark Russell and Chip Pittard received their two-year pins. Silver arrows on the Wolf badges went to Brian Brooks, Roger Nelson and James Russell. John Norris earned his Bear badge and Bobby Miles, David Shill received their arrows of Light. In addition, Mark Bergeron and Randy Wirth were inducted into Cub scouts during the ceremony.

This year they are saluting Alaska, our 49th state. The book marks are small totem poles and the buttons for the club depict the new flag. Each member, in order to receive his diploma, will be required to read ten books, one of which must be about our new state of Alaska.

General news deadline is 4:30 p.m. each Tuesday.
