Tempted by Pride...Persuaded by Economy!

He'd be the first to tell you why his thoughts turned to Cadillac. He was tempted by its beauty and elegance . . . and by its great acceptance. And well he might! For certainly Cadillac—considered from these standpoints—has never been more inspiring.

But yet, how pleasant it was to find that he could make his final decision on the basis of purely practical considerations!

action on the basis of purely practical considerations:

For an examination of the facts revealed some surprising information.

Not only are several Cadillac models priced competitively with other makes—but are within easy reach of many medium-priced cars.

Its great soundness of construction has reduced maintenance expense to the practical minimum-and its gasoline economy actually approximates that of cars built and sold largely on the basis of economy. opproximates that of cars built and sold largely on the basis of economy.

And it is a fact that Cadillac, year after year, returns a higher ercentage of its cost on the resale market than any other motor car,
So there he is—wood by its wonders and won over by its widon ready to take the wheel for his first journey in his first Cadillac.

If you've been wondering how far off this happy day should be for you, we suggest you visit your dealer soon and learn why this is such a propitious moment to make the move. Whether you finally decide on Cadillac for pride or pleasure—of for thrift and practicality—you'll get all four.

We suggest you stop in tomorrow for a personal demonstration.
