Furs by Robert Opinion On MINK PRICES

It is our opinion that the Mink Coats and Jackets we're offering for sale today are substantially less than we will be able to offer them during the coming season.

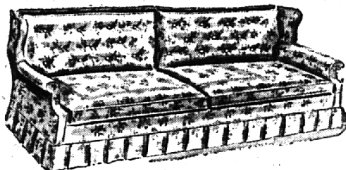

This opinion is based on the current prices being paid at the auction sales for raw mink skins and the prices prevailing in the open market.

We have a limited number of Mink Coats and Jackets made up as well as bundles of skins which are being offered at special June prices. We invite you to see them.

The purchase of a Furs by Robert Mink Coat or Jacket now is a real investment.
