Off the Record

The past year has held success for young Duane Eddy of Phoenix, Ariz. Duane, whose other hobbies include swimming, American history, and collecting records, found a gold mine in the twang guitar sound. "Rebel Rouser" was his first big sound, but was followed by "Ram Rod," "Cannonball," "The Lonely One," "Yep!" and now "Forty Miles of Bad Road." Probably his biggest accomplishment is his first album "Have Tunes, Will Travel." Dunn's is expected big selling in his new album "Especially For You." His latest hit "Yep!" which made Birmingham's Top Ten, is on the new album along with the year's biggest instrumental "Peter Gunn."

in which he plays a driving semi-rock version. "Tuxedo Junction," a rather surprising selection, is also in the album.

Continuing in the series of outstanding jazz artists. This week, the top five male jazz vocalists: 1) Frank Sinatra, 2) Joe Williams, 3) Chet Baker, 4) Johnny Mathis and 5) Louis Armstrong. Can you remember what records were the hottest sellers last summer? This week's BILLBOARD has a complete list. "Yakety Yak" by the Coasters, "Endless Sleep" by Jodie Reynolds, "Jennie Lee" by Jan and Arnie, "Rebel Rouser" by Duane, "Tears on My Pillow" by Little Anthony, "Just a Dream" by Jimmie Clanton, "Spish Splash" by Bobby Darin, "Do You Want To Dance" by Bobby Freeman, and "Little Star" by the Elegants were some of the hits of the summer of '58. According to previous experience, the next month should find a tremendous amount of good singles being released. June and September have proven to be key months. Sam Cooke, who is finally being recognized as an outstanding artist is in town with Stan Kenton, Duke Ellington, and Sarah Vaughn at the Ford Auditorium.

Arrows Flying At B'field JHS

Monday May 25, girls' gym teacher, Miss Siteritt, started an archery contest at Bloomfield Hills junior high school. She took those with the highest scores in archery and had them shoot to see who could get the highest score from each gym class.

So far only first and second hours have shot. The winner from first hour is Sue Gilpin. Sue shot against Merry Mattson, Val Hart and Mary Wild. The winner from second hour is Linda Domes who shot against Lynn Schemanski, Pam Walker, and Finky Listman. This contest will most likely be continued this week.

New Champ Crosses Wire on Derby Day

Sixteen-year-old Don Dierkes is all-boy. Like all boys in today's "western" conscious age, he likes horses.

Unlike most, he decided to do something about it four years ago. And today it looks as if he has a potential Kentucky Derby winner on his hands.

My 2. Kentucky Derby day, Don's mare, "Lady Stormcloud," foaled. The youngster "has perfect confirmation," the teenager said excitedly. The colt has the build of a champion; Don was not surprised.

"HIS GRANDSIRE (I guess that's what you call it) was Burgall King—a Kentucky Derby winner."

"That's not all," he went on. "The colt was up and running around just a few hours after birth. When he's let out after spending the night in the barn, he just sails over the ground." The colt has speed, spirit and grace—shows promise as a racer.

The new addition to Don's family is still unnamed. "I'd like to call him 'Derby Don,'" the BHS junior said. "That is if the Jockey's club's thoroughbred director doesn't show that the name's already been used."

"LADY STORMCLOUD," a high-strung racer, and Don have taken their share of ribbons at Oakland county horse shows and "round-ups."

Don started his horse-training career with "Teddy"—part quarter-horse, part morgan. "I broke him—I guess we both learned this business at the same time," he said as a wide smile spread over
