Public Library Schedules Big Program for Festival

Baldwin Public Library workers, under the direction of head librarian Jeanne Lloyd, is planning a wide and varied program for the nine-day arts festival.

There will be six displays of books in the library to represent the arts throughout the festival.

ONE OF the largest displays will contain most of the books by authors who live in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

Already listed are 18 authors who live in the area.

There will also be several works of authors who have since died.

OTHER DISPLAYS will feature books on music, paintings, architecture, craftsmanship in the art of jewelry, wood carving, mosaic work and ceramics, and books on drama and the theater.

The library will feature noontime concerts by James Melton, vocal artist who will headline the festival.

Children who patronize the library will pay their tribute to the arts by having separate displays.

Other book displays will also make their appearance throughout the city.

THE AMERICAN Association of University Women will prepare a book collector's window at Lake's Jewelry featuring rare books.

A Parisian book stall will be located at Shain park with copies of books written by various Birmingham area authors.

Artists' Market June 10 thru 13

An Artists' Market, one of the many Birmingham Arts Festival events, will be conducted June 10-13 in the former Hilly Acres building, Maple at Chester, Birmingham.

Displayed and for sale will be original paintings, etchings, drawings, decorative wood carvings, and pieces of sculpture.

These will include works by these local artists: Marie Sturmer, Mary Ellen Dobbs, Kathleen Birch, Svea Kline and Dorothy Siddall.

Exhibit hours are 11 a.m.-6 p.m. daily, Friday until 8:30 p.m.

Margaret Valpey is chairman.

Prof. Riklin To Lecture On Literature

Professor Seymour Riklin, noted novelist and lecturer will headline the letters section of the Birmingham Arts Festival with a lecture on "Modern Literature and the Unconscious."

Riklin, a lecturer in English and literature at Wayne State university, will deliver his lecture at Baldwin school, Saturday, June 13, at 8 p.m.

BEFORE coming to Wayne State, he held a similar position at Michigan State university.

Riklin earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago and a master's degree at University of Michigan.

Appearances on a local television program made his work more public and he then became a panelist on Wayne University's TV program, "Comments."
