

Stars To Shine In Local Window

During the Birmingham Arts Festival, the Festival atmosphere is getting an assist from local artists, the Music Committee, and Grinnell Brothers, Inc.

Grinnell's window will become a stage for local musicians and vocalists for one hour daily—except Sunday and Thursday—during the festival.

A Community House concert Thursday afternoon will replace the 1 p.m. store-window presentation.

Scheduled are: sopranos Mary Pardee, and Natalie McKaig, pianists Barbara Wright, Janet Wherry Martin and Martha Whelton, violinist Grace Herta. John and Dorothy Phelps will play piano and organ arrangements.

The Hammond Organ society of Birmingham will furnish organ music for the "live" recitals.

Taped music, Broadcast into the streets will carry on the festival atmosphere between the concerts.

Exhibition by B'ham Community House Classes

One of the first events of the Birmingham Arts Festival will be the Birmingham Community House Craft and Arts Exhibit which will be held at the House Saturday and Sunday, June 6 and 7 from 2:00 to 9 p.m.

This will be a showing of the work done in the various classes this past fall and winter. This should be an incentive for people in Birmingham to see how inexpensively they may acquire hobbies under excellent teachers.

The exhibits will be creative pottery arranged by Mrs. Edith Foster; flower arrangements, Mrs. Alice Slawson; gardening, Mrs. Alice Burlingame; millinery, Mrs. Patricia Cucchi; adult painting, James Rosen and Mrs. Dorothy Siddall; sculpture, Lazslo Ispanky and Miss Svea Kline; sewing, Mrs. Beatrice Roach; silver and enameling, Mrs. Thelma Anderson; and youth program for drawing and painting, Mrs. Virginia Schafer.

Display Art Pictures in Store Windows

Dozens of pictures—everything from sketches to oil paintings and portraits—again will be displayed in windows of Birmingham's many stores and offices during Arts Festival Week June 6-14.

Many of these pictures will be placed on sale to the public. The sales office will be maintained at the Bloomfield Arts Association building, 361 N. Woodward.

THREE of the pictures will be raffled by numbered coupons in the souvenir program and the works will be selected from those designated with a red sticker.

Women Sculptors To Exhibit Work

In conjunction with the Birmingham Arts Festival, Terra Cotta Sculptors will have an exhibit and sale at Grinnell's auditorium June 6 thru 14. The gallery will be open 12-5 weekdays, evenings 7-9, Sundays 2-5. Visitors are invited to attend the June 6 opening reception from 2-5 p.m.

Exhibitors will include Mrs. H. D. Backus, Mrs. R. H. Brown, Mrs. D. F. Carls, Mrs. Thos. Chester, Mrs. R. J. Farrell, Mrs. H. L. Geiger, Mrs. W. J. Griffin, Mrs. J. C. King, Miss Svea Kline, Mrs. Howard Knight, Mrs. Wm. Lowrie, Mrs. F. C. McRea, Mrs. Hugh Martin, Jr., Mrs. Erwin Mork, Mrs. Joseph Oros, Jr., Mrs. A. H. Reekie, Mrs. Stuart Webb, Mrs. J. S. Winttingham, and Mrs. N. O. Wynkoop, and Mrs. D. R. Webster.

The Terra Cotta Sculptors was formally organized in 1953 by 12 Birmingham women who were active sculptors. Their aim was to improve their own skill and to further the appreciation of sculpture in Birmingham.

Mrs. Don Webster was their first president. Mrs. Stuart Webb heads the group now.
