Beverly Hills Man Asks Jury Trial

A 32-year-old Beverly Hills man stood mute and demanded a jury trial when arraigned in Birmingham Municipal court March 6 on a charge of driving under the influence of liquor.

A plea of not guilty was entered by the court, and Municipal Judge John C. Emery set May 1 as the trial date for Richard J. Wilson, 1969 Riverside.

Wilson was arrested March 2 after being involved in a minor accident at Maple and Adams.

Deputy City Clerk

Mrs. Beth Cole has been appointed deputy clerk upon the recommendation of Birmingham City Clerk Irene Hanley. Mrs. Cole has worked in the clerk's office since Feb. 25, 1957.

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

One of Birmingham's businessmen recently walked through a Detroit public building when he saw four men standing and talking. As the Birmingham man, with a companion, walked by he focused his vision on the smallest of the four men and, saluting with his hand, exclaimed: "Hi!" The little man, unsmiling, returned the Birminghamer's "Hi!" The other three men also scrutinized the Birminghamer closely. The latter quickly turned to his companion and said: "I couldn't identify that little fellow a minute ago... why, he's Jimmy Hoffa!" The companion then rejoined: "Bet right now Jimmy's trying to figure out what gang maybe you belong to."

Comments George Marin, this month's editor of Birmingham Rotary club's weekly publication, "The Buzzer": "If Patrick Henry thought taxation without representation was bad, he should see it with representation!"

How would you like to have 50 or 60 pheasants, 30 quail, a dozen rabbits and a large variety of song birds around your backyard all winter? John R. Crissman, 260 Applewood lane, Bloomfield Hills, told this Wanderer that he has had this wildlife menagerie around his home for three consecutive winters. And no wonder, Crissman feeds them approximately a peck and a half of feed each day. He makes sure they stay healthy by feeding them a special formula consisting
