Bobo the Clown Is Theme For Birthday Party

Feb. 28 was an exciting day for Michele Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ward, Jr., 1689 Witherbee road, when she was guest of honor for her 2nd birthday party.

As the children entered the reception room they were pleased to see Bobo the clown as the theme for the party. Colored balloons and crepe paper gave the added touches to the decorations.

The ice cream meringue cake was placed on a musical cake plate for the children to enjoy. Present were Lynn and Kathy Butler, Nancy Craig, Nancy Schulte, Robbie and Johnny Barker, Debbie Dittler, Mary Jo and John Hultbert, Scott Hosker, Cassie Kaufman and Diana Dyla. Baby brother, Jackie looked on with interest. Mothers were nearly also enjoying the festivities.

Mrs. Ward gave favors of puppy dog homes, purses and boats for the boys.

The next day the Wards entertained Michele's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKroy and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Golan and children Richard, Robert and Tommy for dinner and birthday cake.

The Gamma Phi Beta alumni chose a "gay nineties" play theme this year at the American Legion Hall on 2 Mile for their money-making project donated to the retarded children's association and Oakland county club awards.

The authentic costumes were from the historical society to add to the authenticity of their wonderful dramatic "tear-raising" melodrama with Mrs. Mark Yang as the hero. A beauty shop quartet and barber shop quartet and take off on an opera were fun for all listening. The sorority women all took part in the wonderful affair to make it a big success.

Present from the area for the novel evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Fabian, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Robson Farnes, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nuffer, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dubois, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Morris and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Schorr, Jr., general chairman of the affair.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Tammen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tweedie, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Royal Wilson. Mrs. Wilson was mistress of ceremonies who told about the gay nineties period.

Mr. and Mrs. William Voight, 1631 Witherbee road, entertained their daughter Claire de Lee on her ninth birthday, Feb. 28 with a luncheon and theater party.

Claire de Lee's birth flower, the jonquil, was the table centerpiece surrounded by orchid, green and pink spring flowers. The cake carried the same colors and flowers and played "Happy Birthday" when the hostess made her first cut in it. Before leaving for the theater, Sandy McCullough, Debbie Fredrick, Diana Ramsey, Nancy Hehn, Martha Trew and sister Denise received postcard-sized mementos for puppy dogs as favors. Baby sister Michelle remained at home.

The next day Claire de Lee's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Donahue and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent P. Donnelly and children were guests for some more birthday celebration.

Stewart Urquhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Urquhart, 1011 Norwick, celebrated his eleventh birthday recently.

Enjoying lunch, games and an excursion to the movies were Jimmy Urquhart and Gordon Urquhart, Stewart's younger brothers, Don Parrish, Chris Pitt, Bill Brower, David Westoby, D. R. Urquhart, a cousin, Doug Wassell and Steve Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Burn, 1846 Pembroke, entertained weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Russell, of Bay City, Kathy and Kelli Burn were delighted to see and play with David, Tommy and Denise Russell.
