Wing Lake Girl Scouts Hold Sukiyaki Party

WING LAKE — The home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rumsey of Wing Lake road was the scene of a Japanese sukiyaki party held Friday by the girls of Girl Scout troop 366 of Franklin neighborhood group.

Eighteen girls came in Japanese costumes, ate Japanese food with chopsticks and sat on the floor with their dads as guests.

FOLLOWING THE MEAL, they enjoyed a Japanese dance which was a "coal-miners" dance, done to authentic music and taught to them by a local Lutheran minister. After an evening of games and singing the dads went home and the girls stayed for a slumber party.

Mrs. Ralph Charbeneau and Mrs. John D. Rumsey are their co-sponsors with Mrs. Wallace Barringer the neighborhood chairman.

Among their many activities, the James Grissoms of Carey Lane took to curling Saturday when Mrs. Grissom's sorority alumni group, Pi Phi, staged a Detroit Hospital benefit curling party at the Detroit Curling Club.

Before the party, Mr. and Mrs. Grissom were co-hosts with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Crockett of Birmingham for 16 guests at a cocktail party at the Crockett's.

Some 30 guests enjoyed an evening of conversation and refreshments Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Dickerson of Wing Lake road.

A cherry blossom in the midst of everyone's long-winter blues was fruit blossoms and pussy-willows gathered from the Dickerson yard and forced for the occasion. These

Wicklunds Get Deep Sea Catch, Florida Suntan

CHELMSLEIGH — A perfect catch and a perfect tan are what Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wicklund of Harborside road brought home with them, when they returned from Florida last week. The Wicklunds left Feb. 12 and motored south to stop in Baton Rouge and New Orleans, before going to Fort Lauderdale for some deep sea fishing.

They say the fish were not biting, but Wicklund caught a sail and Mrs. Wicklund a tuna and dolphin. All are being mounted to add to their collection. Between landing fish they took time to fly to Nassau for a weekend of shopping.
