SOCIETY

Current Crises Discussed
At B'ham LWV Meeting

"It's not as simple as you might think" will be the theme of the general meeting on foreign policy of the League of Women Voters on Monday afternoon at the Community House.

To be presented by the foreign policy study committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Walter Jackson, the program will bring brief briefings on current crises, from their year-long study, to the general membership.

TO THOSE who may think that the United Nations will provide simple, successful solutions to problems, an Arab squabble may be a surprise. Taking the opposing positions will be for Iraq, Mrs. D. W. Spurrell, for Jordan, Mrs. Eleanor Gaffell, for Israel, Mrs. Douglas Wood.

To those who cry for planning or less ignorance on the part of American foreign policy, Mrs. James Estess will present three

OTHER CRISIS points around the world to be represented by South America, Mrs. Angus Mc-Lay; Berlin, Mrs. Charles Shain; Quenoy, Mrs. Walter Jackson.

This presentation will culminate a year of study "To evaluate United States foreign policy," which was voted to be studied by all Leagues of Women Voters at their last national convention a year ago in Atlantic City.

Others who have participated in this study by the Birmingham LWV are Mrs. Gordon Harrison, Mrs. E. B. Schmink, Mrs. Norman Weston, Mrs. Paul Rosmer, Mrs. George Peterson, Mrs. Winston Kellogg and Mrs. E. R. Sasser.

Village Girl Scouts
Entertain Their Dads

Girl Scouts of Bloomfield Village school entertained their dads last night at dinner in the Community House. Trefoil silhouettes made by the girls were hung on branches to serve as table decorations.

The fifth grade Scouts conducted the flag ceremony and recited the Scout promise and laws.

Penny Cowin served as toastmistress and Martha Moore led the singing. Other sixth grade girls told of requirements for earning badges. They were Ann Barron, Penny Russell, Mary Moore, Janice Beers, Cynthia Mayhew, Ann Cunningham and Kris Wood. Leading the choral speaking were Ann Beaulieu, Kris Swigert and Susan White.

The John A. Stebbins of North Cranbrook road vacationed with son Dick in Florida this past month. They took a villa at Key Biscayne and have a fresh stock of tales to tell about their dolphin and kingfish catch.

The Hoffman Stones of Amherst road flew to Nassau for their sunbathing and water skiing. Staying at the home of a friend they enjoyed this island with a car at their disposal, bringing home the native music on calypso records as well as many hand made straw pieces.

Visiting her parents, the T. Curtis McKenzies, who recently moved from Lahser road to their new home in Lake Ranch Lakes north of

Workshop Program

The afternoon group of the Kappa Delta alumnae association will meet at the home of Mrs. Ralph T. Northrup, 1035 Iroquois, Royal Oak, Monday for a 12:30 luncheon. Mrs. J. C. Crawford will be co-hostess. The program consists of a workshop for the Oakland County Crippled Children's Society.

Executive Board Plans Activities

Mrs. Winfield Hinman, president of Oakland Delta Zeta alumnae, will be hostess tonight to the executive board of groups one and two. All general officers of the two groups are urged to attend the 8 p.m. meeting at the Hinman home, 2710 Wellington, Franklin. Purpose of the meeting is for planning alumnae activities for the coming season, making plans for election of officers at the March 26 general meeting, and discussing other important Delta Zeta alumnae business.

Judy Ann Stanley To Marry Ronald E. Launs

The home of the Allen Wiselys of Eastlady lane, Southfield, was the setting for the announcement of the marriage of their niece, Judy Ann Stanley, to Ronald E. Launs. Their parents are Mrs. Crandall Stanley of Highland Park and the Ronald Dewart Launs of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Miss Stanley, a graduate of Michigan State university, was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Gamma Mu and Theta Alpha Phi. Her fiance is attending Wayne State university after spending a year in Germany.

An August wedding is planned.
