

Derby JHS Derby Joins Drive to Build Clinton School

By SUE BREDLOVE

Derby is now among the other Birmingham schools to help back up the "Cokes For Clinton" Drive. This was organized at Birmingham high school. Clinton high school of Tennessee was recently bombed and Birmingham high students decided that if everyone donated one dime that would have paid for a coke, Clinton high could be rebuilt.

The student council has recently organized a committee on safety in the halls and around Derby. They have clever posters placed in strategic positions in the halls; one of the most noticeable is located over the cafeteria entrance and reads: Danger — Cattle Crossing. Derby has many glass walls and these reminders will help insure less breakage.

The Spanish club went on a trip on Friday, March 10. They left Derby at 5:00 and went downtown to eat at the Mexican Village restaurant. Later that evening the group went to the Detroit Women's Federation Building where they saw "Sangre Azul" (Blue Blood), a comedy in three acts put on by junior high members of YMCA Spanish club. The play entirely in Spanish presented quite a challenge to the beginning Spanish students.

The National Junior Honor Society is selling Sanders' candy to raise money for the induction of new members in the spring. The candy costs $1.25 per box, and any extra money will be used to buy a plaque honoring the Valedictorian and Salutatorian of each graduating class. The candy will be delivered on March 14 or March 21 by the Honor Society members.

The homemaking classes had a bake sale on March 10 during fourth hour. They sold cookies, fudge, brownies, cupcakes, and cake. The sale was a huge success as all bake sales are.

New Derby book covers are being sold in the school store now. They are 7c each or four for a quarter. The book covers, sponsored by the student council, are done in red and white, the school colors, and decorated with the school emblem, the Derby Dragon.

There will be a record hop tonight, March 20, sponsored by the library and the radio club, jointly, in Derby's gymnasium. The nation's top hit tunes will be given away as prizes after the dancing.

The all school spelling bee was held on Tuesday, March 10, during fifth hour in the clinic. Tom Dashiell is the champion speller at Derby, and Bob Heavnerich is the runner-up. The other contestants in the order in which they finished are Russ Foster, Lee Wood, Sue Keeton, Linda Markie, Tom Bingham, Judy Vallin, Rhoda Stutz, Bill Tracy, Carol Joynt, Lynda Lambert, Sue Gieryn, Penny Drake, Cheryl Howson, Sue May, Sue Thygeson, Roger Chope, and Linda Haight.

Two JA Members Win Scholarships

Two outstanding members of the Junior Achievement organization in southeastern Michigan have been awarded a 14-week Dale Carnegie speaking scholarship by Leadership Training Institute, Detroit. They are Kenneth Allor, 4160 Sandy Lane, and William Seydel, 6644 Vachon court.

The young business tycoons will meet with regularly scheduled classes for adults on Wednesday evenings at the Birmingham Community Center.

BHS Secretary Club Sponsors Program

The Future Secretaries club at Birmingham High recently held a program of speakers for the business department students.

Speakers were representatives of Goodbody and Sons, Royal Oak; the Ford Motor company and the Detroit Bank.

Students, who worked on the program, were Elizabeth Schaulie, Karen Stinson, Marlene Colburn, Mary McKee and Kitty Allen.

251 Scouts, Brownies Gather at Harlan

Brownie troops from Harlan school sing a tribute at the Juliette Low International Friendship fund activities held last week at the school. Sally Garrison, BHS junior, leads them in their Brownie song. A total of 251 girls from Pembroke, Harlan and Derby, contributed to the fund in various ways. Some gave a penny for every inch of their right arm while others donated a penny for every inch of their father's waist.

Holy Name Defeats St. Michaels

By CAROL JURICA

Holy Name's varsity played St. Michaels of Southfield March 6 and beat them! St. Mike's showed great school spirit by bringing three bus loads of children to cheer their team on. This was the last interscholastic game played by the boys, however, they played an intramural game on Friday, March 13 with the intramural squad at Holy Name.

Holy Name's Easter vacation will begin with the close of classes on March 21. School will resume, after a long vacation, on April 7.

Class pictures for all the rooms in Holy Name school were taken on Wednesday, March 11, by a photographer from Student's Studio, Detroit. The eighth graders at Holy Name wore their best, for the picture is both the class and graduation picture.

The essay contest for the Archdiocese Development Fund was recently opened. The contest is held annually in the 7-12 grades, and $25 will be given to the writers of the eight best essays in each of the senior, junior, sophomore and freshman classes of the high schools.

The fourteen best in each of the seventh and eighth grades of the grade schools will also receive awards. The contest will close on March 25.

More than 12 million tons of coal were purchased in 1955 for use by steam plants of the Tennessee Valley Authority. This coal came from Alabama, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia.
