Baldwin Students Shutterbug Enthusiasts

Baldwin sixth grade students, members of the camera club, watch intently as Alfred Davock explains the functions of an enlarger. Davock and James Spence (left) are fathers of two club members. They meet with the students each Wednesday afternoon to give instruction and supervise the activities of the young shutterbugs.

Pancake Supper And Bake Sale Held by Students

By CHRIS GRAYSON

The Bloomfield Hills junior high held a "Pancake Supper" for all those interested on Tuesday evening March 10 from 5:30 to 7:30. Admission charges were 75¢ for students and $1.25 for adults. Tickets were sold Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of the previous week and also at the door.

An old-fashioned bake sale was also held the same evening. Anyone who wished to bake for it was welcome to do so. It was heard that everyone had a good time and arrived home stuffed!

Those who are in the new play cast for "The Faker" are Barb Stelzer, Sandy Sarnes, Karen MacAlpine, Murren Gallivan, Allen Armstrong, Don Klesio, Dave Dilow, Martin Sloan, Denise Ashley, and Holly Fry.

The cast members were named on Tuesday morning March 10. All those who tried out for the play, but didn't make it, have been organized into committees to help out in rehearsals.

Lunchroom entertainment this week included Buff Russell's, Harry Schreiber's, and Jim Scott's versions of "House, Car and Wedding Ring" and "The Lonely One". Buff and Harry played guitars while Jim accompanied them with congo drums. They all did an expert job and sounded very much like the two records.

A "Sock Hop" was held right after school on Thursday March 12 until 5:30. A student disk-jockey helped spin the records while everyone danced in stocking feet. Teachers who helped throughout the dance are Mr. Phillips, Mr. O'Brien, Miss Waller, and Mr. Keven.

On Thursday at the same time, badminton games were held for the girls by Miss Siterlit. Such tournaments will probably be held every Thursday.

In the same night, from 6:30 to 8:30, a sports meeting was held for all boys who were interested.

This was sponsored by Mr. Schreiber. It was held in the boys' gymnasium.

A student council meeting was held on Wednesday, March 11 during 7th hour in the conference room.

Eighth graders have had a fairly rough week since Iowa tests have been given. These were taken Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mornings.

A Valentines dance on March 21? Well, they're doing it, yes! Valentias, the Phi Sigma Tau Valentines dance is being given evening after next, Saturday night, here at the school—and fortunately, all previously purchased tickets will be honored.

Congratulations are in order for two artistic young ladies here at BHHS — both of whom took awards in the Crowley's sponsored scholastic art awards. Philmore Drummond, well-known senior, took a gold key and a blue ribbon for her entry — a color slide of a quiet English scene, taken while touring Europe last summer. The other artist, Sue Sass, a junior, took gold key honors for her watercolors. Again, congratulations!

Of course, all BHHS students are aware that our great Barons were defeated by Romeo, 67-46, but it is only right that they be honored for the wonderful job they did against a more powerful team, and for the wins that gave BHHS the district championship. Laurel wreaths all around!

Susan Knopf Wins News' Spelling Bee

By PATSY GORDON

The Detroit News spelling bee for the school champion was held March 11. The winner was Susan Knopf, a seventh grader. The winning word was "exonerating." Run-up was Cynthia Detmers, an eighth grader.

Third place was taken by Ker Savage, followed by Melinda McCuin, Erin Newhouse, Gerda Raffaele, Jim Steiner, Charles Dick, Tina Frantz, Tim Sprung, Mary Bangs, Kathy Kietzer, David Hall, Wendy Weymouth, George Hall, Diana Inman, David Rattenhouse, John Martin, Don Robinson, and Forbes Van Wyck. The winner will participate in the district bee.

Plans are underway for Barnum's first division band, under the direction of Mr. Bronson, to compete in the state-wide junior high band festival. This festival will be held in Grand Rapids on Saturday, April 25.

The annual teen-time talent show will be held in the middle of April. These acts will be previewed for the students at assemblies, after which the best acts will be chosen for the night performance.

Hard work is in store for the eighth and ninth grade choirs the rest of this year. Both choirs are preparing for the Oakland county festival which occurs on April 25 at the Jane Addams school in Royal Oak.

They will participate in the spring concert in May and will take part in the all-city festival in June. The teen-time talent show is organized by the ninth grade choir, under the direction of Miss Brezette.

The eighth grade choir, under the direction of Mrs. Weston, gave a winter dance. Norm O'Neill, from Pontiac high, was the disc jockey. The party was a big success.

Last Thursday, March 12, marked the end of another marking period. Report cards will be distributed on March 20.
