

He Needs Your Help

The Oakland County Society for Crippled Children headquarters was a busy place last week as the many thousands of sheets of 1959 Easter Seals went into the mails. Easter Seals raise the funds necessary to help children like Richard Driesseger, 5, who is Oakland County Easter Seal child for 1959. Talking with "Dickie" are Richard C. Pae (left), president of the Society, and William V. Vasu, 1959 Easter Seal general chairman. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kratt, 39½, Lorraine court, Pontiac, Dickie was born without arms and legs.

Baldwin Library Offers Art Show, Science Book Lists

As a "Salute to Science," the Baldwin public library boys' and girls' department is currently offering young patrons three new science book lists plus an art show of water color pictures with a science motif. The paintings, done by City and Science is currently conducting its Country school students, under the supervision of Mrs. Charlotte Whitney, are on display in the Boys' and Girls' department.

THE BOOK lists have been compiled for three different age levels, pre-schoolers to third graders, children in the middle grades and older boys and girls. The lists cover such books as "Pets of the Pond," "Science in Your Own Backyard," "Transistor Work Like This" and "Atomic Experiments for Boys." Because Cranbrook Institute of Science is currently conducting its "Exploring Science" series of programs, the list will be distributed there as well as at the library.
