GILBERT LAKE—Members of the Gilbert Lake Estates Garden club met Monday for dessert and coffee at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Durham of Snowsboro circle. John Kudarski of Northland Landscape company presented a talk on landscape architecture illustrated with three-dimensional colored slides.

When their son, Dana, 12, spent 10 days recently at St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor undergoing the last of a four-year series of operations, neighbors took over for the family at home so that Mrs. Sturdivant could stay with Dana. And they visited Dana frequently, showering him with cards and gifts.

It wouldn't be St. Patrick's Day without a little celebrating so the Robert Faughts of North Darlington invited friends to their home for cocktails and after dining out they returned to the Faughts for more celebrating.

Guests were Mrs. Faught's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. Timothy Cruise, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Radey.

Horse Race Fans Trek to California

WING LAKE FARMS—It's fun to go to the races, particularly when you have to go to California to see a horse owned by your good friend racing. But what makes it even more thrilling is when the horse is "Hillside"—and he wins!

Such was the recent experience of Michael Markarian of Franklin road whose friends are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith, owners of "Hillside."

Markarian and friend Howard Hamilton of Meadowlake enjoyed their stay at the former home of movie star Dolores Del Rio.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, guests of wind have taken their toll at the Markarian home tearing down the new porch roof and uprooting a one-season old birch tree.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maddox of Walnut Lake road recently drove to Atlanta, Ga., where they spent three days attending business and then on to St. Petersburg and St. Miami Beach where they spent the rest of their vacation at the Pan American motel.

While there, they visited with a number of friends near-by who were also visiting from Detroit.

They then went on to the Isle of Florida, they flew to ice-licking their way out of the driveway.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cohagan have returned from a 10-day vacation in Cuba. Flying from Miami to Havana, where they spent a day, they then went on to the Isle of Pines where they spent the rest of the time.

With them were Mr. and Mrs. James J. Smith of Detroit. For Don, this is his fourth trip to Cuba this year to follow his hobby of pigeon and quail hunting. He and Goodrich spent considerable time with the sport and even included the ladies one day.

But more fascinating to the girls was the Señala Fe beach parlor that has to heat shampoo water in the tub.

Pancake Supper to Fill 'Inner Needs' at Franklin

FRANKLIN—There's a strong accent on youth in this hilly never-never land.

This week we gotta crowd about the Pancake Supper being held for area families by Boy Scout Troop B-11, Friday night in the social hall of the Franklin Community church.

The Christian Social Relations committee of the Franklin Community church have commended Stan Gauding, proprietor of the Village Drug store for his interest in village youth and his deep concern for their good reading material.

Twice a week the newsmen delivers copies of magazines to the store. Before any of these journals are stacked on the shelves, Stan, or one of his assistants, painstakingly checks through them and removes any that can be classified as salacious or suggestive.

"I have three daughters of my own," says Stan, "and love young-uns. I want to be sure that we only sell what is good for our youth to read."

The objectionable matter is repacked and returned to the dealer.

"Smiling Dan" Brown is really smiling these days. He's back from ten days in California where he attended the wedding of a friend. The 78 degree temperature did much to warm Dan's heart.

Newly elected village clerk, Mrs. Elsie Garwood; councilman Fred Ziegel and treasurer Robert Winkler will be sworn into office just before 8 p.m. March 23. Residents are invited to attend.
