

William Breech Oakland's Mich. Week Chairman

Appointment of William H. Breech as 1959 Michigan Week chairman for Oakland county was announced this week by Foster Winter, vice president of the J. L. Hudson company and Region VII Michigan Week chairman.

Breech, who is president of Great Lakes Tractor and Equipment company, will direct organization of Michigan Week activities in Oakland county to be held May 17-23.

"The slogan for this year's celebration is 'We're Proud to Live in Michigan,'" Breech said. "With complete organization in Oakland County communities, we hope to bring residents a strong reminder of the truly impressive natural resources and skilled manpower Michigan possesses."

AGAIN THIS year, Michigan Week will be divided into seven days with the following themes: Sunday, May 17-Spiritual Foundations Day; Monday, May 18-Exchange of Mayors Day; Tuesday, May 19-Hospitality Day; Wednesday, May 20-Our Liveliness Day; Thursday, May 21-Education Day; Friday, May 22-Our Heritage Day; Saturday, May 23-New Frontiers Day.

Breech, who resides at 3530 Franklin, Bloomfield Hills, is a native of Illinois and was graduated from the University of Detroit. He organized his firm in 1947 after serving as a sales executive with Peninsular Grinding Wheel company following World War II.

Mormon Official To Speak Here

A high-ranking official of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon) will address the quarterly conference of the Detroit Stake Saturday and Sunday.

Elder Henry D. Taylor, an assistant to the Council of the Twelve Apostles, which represents the church headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah, will speak at the newly opened Detroit Stake center at Woodward and Chesterfield, Bloomfield Hills. General sessions at 10:30 and 2 p.m. each day will be open to the public.

Elder Taylor left his career as a prominent Provo, Utah, business executive to become president of the California Mission in 1955. He was called to his present position in 1958.
