North Adams Boy Scout Troop B34 Camp Out for Two Days

A caravan left the Harlan school laden down with Boy Scouts of troop B34, camp equipment, and dads Friday for two rugged days of camping out. Their destination—Ore Creek at Howell, Mich.

After the day's hikes, achievement study and tests, scouts and dads gathered around the camp fire for songs and patrol skits. Dads holding down the fort on Friday night were, Walter Kingsett, Don Richardson, Charles Bethel and Fred Cornett. A fresh batch of dads arrived at the camp site Saturday morning. They included, Gene Quackenbush, Ken Brooker, Bill Lyman, with Fred Cornett staying on until Sunday.

A record crowd witnessed the annual Cub Scout pack B34 "Pine Wood Derby" in the Harlan school gym recently. The miniature racing cars, measuring 7" long, were the result of father and son projects. Two state police troopers were judge at the 80' ramp during race time.

Grand Pack Champion was Greg Oxford of den 3. Den Champions were, John Melcher, Greg Oxford, Craig Hughes, Perry Patterson, Terry Rauldry, Douglas Combs, Bill Kingsett and John Brown. Last Saturday was Grosse Ile Day for the Dad and Lad Group of Cub Pack B34.

The E. William Gerhards of Haddington road chose St. Croix in the Virgin Islands as their vacation playground for two weeks recently. Accompanying them on the trip were, the N. O. Wynkoops, the John Chides, the Glen Waggoners, all of Birmingham. The picturesque Cicapree Bay hotel was their home away from home while they enjoyed sailing, fishing and swimming.

Sue McGuire, daughter of the Fred McGuire of Burnley drive, is looking forward to her trip to Washington, D. C. and New York with her Birmingham High School senior class this weekend.

While the Clifford Mezeys were leisurely enjoying cocktails before dinner at the Oakhill drive home of the Robert Schwabs, much was happening at the Mezeys home on Oakhill unknown to Metz.

In the half hour they were away from home, guests quietly gathered and waited for the celebration of a "surprise birthday party" honoring Metz. Joining in the buffet supper and evening of bridge were, the Tom Bransons, the James Everetts, the Robert Schwabs, the William Gorenfelds, the Roland Starks, all of Birmingham, and the Oscar Mezeys of Bloomfield, parents of Metz.

The Fred Oliver of Hickory Heights drive were honored at a dinner party in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary on Friday evening. Hosting the party were, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith of North Adams road, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stafansky at the Stafansky's new home on Dowling road. Also extending their best wishes and presenting the Oliver with a brandy set and matching ebony tray were, Mrs. Lillian Griffin, mother of Mrs. Oliver, the Robert Rayens of Hickory Heights drive, the Charles Lineburgers of Dearborn, the Howard Harringtons of Grosse Pointe, and the Joseph Gryson of Foxcroft.

Gail Welter Honored At Pre-Nuptial Showers

Gail Welter, whose marriage to Rick Webster of Phoenix, Ariz., will be solemnized in June right after her graduation from Albion, was showered this week by friends of her mother's while she is home on Easter vacation.

Sixteen ladies met for lunch on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. A. F. Brookman of Broadway boulevard, and showered her with many lovely gifts. Wednesday, Mrs. Fred J. Finkenauer Jr., of N. Glenhurst road entertained twelve for lunch also at a "Round the Clock" shower.

A dinner party at the John P. Richardson of Williamsburg road, with the dessert course served at the Howard L. Linders' Chesterfield road home, was enjoyed by a group of young folks before the Barbara Seaver's dance in Cranbrook gym last Friday night.

Guests were Sue White, Janice Petti, Martha Moore and Janice Linder, Bill Roberts, Danny Dickinson, Mark Lucas and John Richardson.

Just returned from three weeks in Florida are the John O. Dykstras of Endsleigh road and the Roy C. Fritzes of W. Glengarry circle. They both were in Ft. Lauderdale and enjoyed each other's company while there. The Dykstras also visited with friends from Lansing, the Alex Olfassons.

Guests at the H. W. Hitchcock home on Burning Bush last week were Hitchcock's brother and wife, the William H. Hitchcocks of Milwaukee. Daughter Janet, is home from Michigan State to spend Easter vacation and son, Woody, has already returned to studies at St. John's Military academy, Deland, Fla., after a ten day stay with his parents.

A miscellaneous shower for Cecilia Ann Balfour of Plymouth, who is to be married this Saturday, was given by Mrs. T. O. Stewart, Overhill road, March 15 at Plum Hollow Golf club.
