

Scout Commissioners

War Today Means $50 Billion Bite

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article by Robert W. Peden, 1462 Pierce Birmingham, appeared recently in the Wayne State University newspaper, The Daily Collegian, Peden, former president of the South Oakland county American Association for the U.N., wrote the article on the international organization of brother countries, in conjunction with Brotherbood Week.

By ROBERT W. PEDEN

A few months ago Dr. Edward Teller, "Father of the H-Bomb," addressed the Economic Club of Detroit on the subject, "How Can America Win the Cold War?" He conceded that—"war, particularly all-out war, has become a very devastating business."

He recommended the expansion of our military budget from $42 billion to $50 billion, and advocated the construction of deep, strong, and expensive shelters equipped with a self-contained air supply.

Other recommendations included the use of $\pi$ 110 AC power unit in trategic locations. He dismissed the stockplinic of obsolete machine deserved the stockplinic of obsolete machine the possibility of megatiations as every autifum of selections. Rome declared:

"IN OUR present scientific revolution when scientists are playing a perilous game with nuclear power and astronauties, it behowes all stand influence, power, control and authority to apply ourselves to problems the solution of which will determine the future of the civilized world."

He warned af the space age's scientists and the added that where as "natural and physical scientists are now the darlings of government, and billions of dollars worth of fantastic equipment is lavished upon them and they are assisted upon them and they are assisted scientists, on whom rests the responsibility of understanding and making public knowledge of power relationships, are impoverished and neglected."

relationships, are impoverished and neglected."

The foregoing 'contrasting opinions present a real challenge to the thinking of the American college student. To resolve this dichotomy I suggest that the following proposition of the analysis of the student of t

2. BECAUSE WE are American

2. BECAUSE WE are American citizens, and because our government signed the charter of the U.N. in 1945, I believe that the same loyalty and support we give to our Constitution should extend to all of the cuncils and agencies of the U.N. Our government is not only erecting a multi-story structure facing the U.N. Building, but were facing the U.N. Building, but such U.N. agencies as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

 We can eliminate much con-
