Three Cranbrook Dads Brave Scout Camp-out

CRANBROOK—Three Cranbrook fathers are well on their way to recovery from a strenuous weekend with a group of Boy Scouts at Camp Howell.

Among the campers were Dr. John Bryan and son Jack, Hugh Clark and son Richard and Stan Craft and son Jim.

A few of the boys ran three quarters of a mile for physical fitness Saturday. (There's no record that any of the fathers joined in the run.)

Stan Craft reports that a few of the B-1 Troop tried to sleep outdoors Saturday night. Stan says he didn't mind when one fellow gave up and came in about midnight, but every fifteen minutes another boy gave up and came in searching for a warm place to sleep. Not much sleep for those poor fathers, but they liked it.

Mr. and Mrs. John Semivan have returned from a weekend in New York City. Two popular musicals and a visit to the United Nations building were a part of their trip which included dinner at a popular nightclub.

That new tribe of Indian Guides in Cranbrook has grown to 12 boys now. Meeting at the Lloyd Gator home last week, the boys created Indian medallions for their personal use.

William Edward Kirk arrived Sunday weighing in at a little over eight pounds. The new arrival gives the boys in the Harry Kirk family an edge of three to two.

Welcoming spring Saturday, one bright little circus appeared in the John Bryant lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swearingen spent last weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas in Chicago. Lunching in the Pump Room, they met Durward Kirby and Ed Wynn. A visit to the Gaslight Room was also included in the busy weekend.

Lathrup Promised Quit Claim Deed By Subdivider

LATHRUP—Mayor Richard N. Cogger told council members Monday evening that a subdivider of Charles D. Kelley had promised to deliver a revised quit claim deed to the city's sewers on Tuesday morning. The city of Lathrup has filed preliminary papers in connection with a suit against the subdivider to gain title to the sewers.

Kelley also told the Mayor that he would deliver a letter regarding required easements this week.

Moving along on the storm water program, Mayor Cogger and Mayor Fredrick Johnson have set a tentative conference date with the engineering firm of Fate and Hirm for next Monday.

FRANKLIN—Among the nearly 700 people who attended the pancake supper Friday at Franklin Community church, small boys like Craig Love, Jimmy Longley, Terry Mandy and others (left) were among the most enthusiastic. Proceeds from the Boy Scout Troop B-11's second annual effort will go toward purchasing more camping equipment.
