'Spreading Chestnut Tree'
Went Too Far This Time!

BERKSHIRES—During a wind storm, have you ever heard a noise that sounded as if the roof was falling in? Well, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Craft did and they were right!

One of the huge trees in front of their Lincoln road home fell on their house during the recent wind storm. As newcomers to the Berkshires, it wasn't a very hardy welcome.

The Crafts moved into their new home Feb. 2. They are former residents of Detroit. They have a daughter, Tracy who is two-years-old.

Members of Western Golf and Country Club, the Crafts are anticipating golf season. They also like to bowl. Craft is with the sales division of General Tire and Rubber.

Back from New York after a week shopping and seeing the shows are Mrs. Charles Dalglish of E. Greenwald drive and her mother, Mrs. J. G. Gilbert who is visiting from Nashville. Dalglish joined the twosome for the weekend. They all returned here last Sunday. Mrs. Dalglish will return home with her mother March 31 for a brief visit. Looking forward to the trip are Sara and Chuckie Dalglish.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Garfield entertained their pot-luck group Saturday. Following dinner, they played cards. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Fitzgibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Kilpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bentley.

Back from the sunny south are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilcrest. They vacationed for two weeks at the Golden Strand Motel in Miami Beach.
